M.A. Students Research
2005-2006

- Adam Kuymizakis:
  "Intelligence in the Fight against Terrorism Post 9/11"

- Christianne Caruana:
  "Women in Decision-Making in the Euro-Mediterranean Region"

- Darren Vella:
  "What is the Vatican’s Stand on War against Terrorism Post 9/11 Analysis"

- David Ian Mansfield:
  "The Role of International Arms Control and Proliferation of Weapons of Mass Destruction in the Post Cold-War Era"

- Edward Spiteri:
  "Conservation and Management of Mediterranean Coastal Biodiversity: A Case for International Reserves and Nature Parks"

- Keith Zammit Marmara:
  "Recognition of Genocide: The Armenian Struggle after the 1st Genocide of the 20th Century"

- Lysanne Milja Celine Bakker:
  "Developments in the Doctrine of Humanitarian Intervention since the End of the Cold War"

- Maria Micallef:
  "Addressing the Root Causes of Terrorism: An Analysis of Post 9/11"

- Matthew Buttigieg:
  "Combating New Security Threats through a Multilateral Framework: The UN and International Terrorism"

- Michela-Marie Debattista:
  "Political Islam: A Fundamentalist Comeback to Western Supremacy?"

- Neil Kerr:
  "The Influence of a Monotheistic Religion on Human Rights: The Case of Christianity"

- Philip Vella:
  "The EU's Counter Terrorism Policy"
• Roberto Pace:
  "Electronic Surveillance as Means of Political Control: It's increased significance after September 11 and the consequent Privacy Implications"

• Saviour Aquilina:
  "Positive Influence of Tourism on Diplomacy: A Mediterranean Perspective"

• Valerie Croin:
  "1830-2005: 175 Years of Belgian Foreign Policy and Diplomacy"