

NATIONAL CONFERENCE FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT IN MALTA

The National Commission for Sustainable Development organised a National Conference to launch the consultation process on the National, at Corinthia San Gorg on 24 April 2004. The Conference was organized with the support of the Ministry for Rural Affairs and the Environment.

It was attended by about 230 persons, and was highly successful in eliciting the participation of persons representing various stakeholders, including the business community, the trade unions, women's organisation, the public sector, the construction industry, NGOs, local councils, the Science and Technology Community and others.

The plenary sessions were addressed by the Prime Minister Lawrence Gonzi, the Minister for Rural Affairs and the Environment, Mr George Pullicino, Professor Francesco La Camera and Professor Lino Briguglio. There were a number of workshops, each of which produced a brief report which was then discussed in plenary.
