11th Annual St. Augustine Lecture

1 November 2007

Dr. Larissa Seelbach will deliver a lecture on Augustine on Women. Dr Seelbach is a Lecturer in Theology at the University of Würzburg.

Theological Encounters

The aim of the Theology Encounters is to offer an opportunity for Faculty staff members to share and discuss their recent research. With the exception of the first Theological Encounter the other meetings are reserved for the academic staff:

Prof. J. Friggieri

Theology in Caravaggio

Rev. Dr. H. Scerri

L-Eskatologija f'xi poeti Maltin

Rev. Prof. E. Agius

Europe's shared fundamental values in Biotechnology and Health Policies

Rev. Dr. Joe Galea Curmi

Emerging issues in Pastoral Theology

Faculty Day

31 January 2008

L-isfida li toffri Malta Illum

The aim of this half day seminar is to bring students and academics together to celebrate their faith, discuss and share opinions on theological issues and to socialise with each other.

Inter-Faculty Dialogue

6 March 2008

Values and the Formation of Teachers

Meeting for members of Staff of the Faculties of Theology and Education.

Academic Evening in honour of St. Thomas Aquinas

8 April 2008

The evening is organised by the Theological Student Association in collaboration with the Faculty of Theology. The guest speaker is Prof. Ludger Honnefelder who is an Emeritus Professor of Philosophy at the University of Bonn in Germany, the Director of the German Reference Centre for Ethics in the Life Sciences, and the Director of the Department of Biomedical Ethics in the Institut für Wissenschaft und Ethik in Bonn.

External Examiner

7-11 July 2008

As part of the continuous evaluation of the academic programmes, the Faculty of Theology invites annually a lecturer from a foreign university to review students' performance in final examinations. The Faculty is honoured to have Prof. Barbara Hallensleben from the University of Fribourg, Switzerland as this year's external examiner. Born in 1957, Prof Hallensleben teaches in the Department of Dogmatic Theology. In 2004, she has been appointed by Pope John Paul II as member of the International Theological Commission.
