

28 SEP
28 OCT

28 SEPTEMBER - RESEARCHERS' NIGHT | 6PM ONWARDS | VALLETTA

St James Cavalier

Cinema Room:

Science Film Festival
18:00 - 20:00 Science of Sleep
20:00 - 22:00 Gattaca
22:00 - 00:10 Twelve Monkeys

Green Room (next to upper gallery entrance)
Special screening of the short film series Green Porno by actress Isabella Rossellini about the sex lives of animals and insects.

Upper Galleries: 'How?' A Science and Art collective exhibition by local artists (Elisa Von Brockdorff, Adrian Abela, and others) with a unique performance at 8pm by the rubberbodies collective called -E*: Inverting Geometry

Music Room:

19:00 - 21:00 - Mathematics and music: seminar piano recital by Tricia Dawn Williams.
21:00 - 23:00 - Malta Café Scientifique talk about Chemists on Wings: To Bee or not to Bee.

Cortex ●●●

Outside the National Library

Hanging acrylic sculpture, composed of slices of different animal brains by Raphael Vella.

Silence in Strait Street ●●●

between South Street & Ordinance Street

Echo free chamber and acoustic experience in an intimate space within Strait Street by Chris Briffa Architects.

Art curated by Lily Agius Gallery, Science in the City is supported by the Malta Arts Fund and EU FP7 Programme Researchers' Night

SciBar

A Science themed bar letting people eat and drink in merchant's street. Food and drinks by Bart Saive of Marcel's Kitchen. Music by Andrew Alamango.

Humanised Fruit Flies

6 foot tall papier-mâché sculptures inspired by the habits of fruit flies by Liliana Fleri Soler.

Auberge D'Italie - Kids Area

18:00 - European Corner for Children
18:00 - Exhibition of 3d models by skolasajf
18:30 - Interactive science play for all ages
19:30 - Award Ceremony for 3D model winners
20:00 - Research on site:
Be part of a research project

Angelica Cafe

23:15 - till late - Actor, DJ and generally naughty boy Steve Hili gets to grips with science

You are the Staircase

Six metre tall interactive light sculpture & installation by Norbert Francis Attard inspired by DNA powered by Nexos, MAV & Kee Klampco

Science Fun Fair (Central Bank Car Park)

Organised by MCST: 6pm - 11pm interactive science exhibits and live science show with experiments, every hour on the hour (45 min).

EU Innovation mural

Puppet shows, forum theatre, animators, a digital graffiti wall and live street art painting.

Joyride

Life sized doughnut - shaped bus by Emmanuel Bonnici.

Palazzo Ferreira
L'Ultima Regola del Gioco

20:00, 21:00 & 22:30 (20 min show) Flute and live electronics, music: Corrado Pasquotti, flute: Federika Lotti, live electronics: Alvis Vidolin. Organised by MACM and supported by the Ministry of Education.

MEUSAC building - Kids Area

EU Corner with fun Ebooks projected on a large screen demoeed by Librarians from the University of Malta entertaining children and young adults alike.

King's Own Band Club

20:00hrs - 20:30hrs - A chance to discuss research with scientists over a glass of wine.

St George's Sq
Live science TV show

20:40-23:00 Show presented by Pawlu Borg Bonaci, Angie Laus, scripted by Malcolm Galea, featuring University of Malta scientists and full of live experiments, comedy, dance, music and entertainment for everyone. Produced by Where's Everybody.

The Exchange Buildings

Audiovisual experience organised by RIDT.

Student Corner

●●● Activities by various student groups from the University of Malta.

●●● Science Busking: Live science shows from 7.30 till 11:30, every hour, performed by S-cubed.

All Streets

Carnival Parade

Science themed Maskri Grotteski.

For more information about activities happening on the 29th Sept (Notte Bianca) and the rest of the festival check out:

www.scienceinthecity.org.mt

