The Edward de Bono Seminar 2009
conducted entirely by Edward de Bono 25 - 26 - 27 March 2009

Why you should attend:
Would you like to be more creative?
Would you like to improve your repertoire of thinking skills and strategies?
Creative Thinking is an important human resource. It is important to utilise this resource to become more creative in today’s fast-changing world. This is an opportunity to learn practical strategies which will be useful in your professional, social, academic and personal life.
Professor Edward de Bono, who was born in Malta, is the inventor of Lateral Thinking. His thinking skills are powerful and simple techniques which can be used in a deliberate manner. The Seminar will be useful to all those who are interested in improving and expanding their potential for innovative conceptual, critical and creative thinking.

The Edward de Bono Seminar will be held following
The First International Conference on Strategic Innovation and Future Creation
Date: 23 - 24 March 2009
Time: 09.00hrs to 17.00hrs
For details on the conference: www.einnform.eu

Seminar Registration Fee: €200
Conference Registration Fee: €200 Discounted registration fee for those attending both the conference and the de Bono Seminar: €350

The Examination in General Thinking Skills
(Optional)
Date: 27 March 2009
Time: 13.00hrs to 14.30hrs
Examination Registration Fee: €80

REGISTRATION FORM

☐ The First International Conference on Strategic Innovation and Future Creation.
☐ The Edward de Bono Seminar 2009
☐ Examination General Thinking Skills

Full Name and Surname: _______________________________________________________
Mailing Address: ___________________________________________________________
Email: _________________________________________________________________
Organisation: __________________ Position: __________________________
Enclosed please find cheque payable to the University of Malta in settlement of above for the sum of __________________________

Please mail to:
The Edward de Bono Institute for the Design and Development of Thinking
University of Malta, Msida MSD 2080, Malta