Introduction
The overall objective of this syllabus is to provide candidates with a knowledge and understanding of the main sociological theories and concepts and methods.

Aims
A course based on this syllabus should provide candidates with:

a) a clear understanding of concepts, theories and methods within sociology;

b) the opportunity to study selected areas of sociology;

c) the chance to apply sociology to different societies, including Maltese society.

Assessment Objectives
The examination will assess a candidate’s ability to:

1. demonstrate a knowledge and understanding of sociological concepts, theories and methods of sociological inquiry;

2. discuss sociological theories and methods;

3. use such knowledge and understanding to analyse and evaluate social behavior and social issues.

The candidate is to ensure the following:

a) a clear understanding of the question/s asked;

b) the need of planning coherent and structured answers; and

c) the fact that it is not the length which matters but to-the-point answer/s.

Assessment Pattern
The examination will consist of three written papers, each of three hours’ duration.

Paper I is designed to test the candidates’ knowledge and understanding of the nature and contribution of sociology as a discipline. Candidates will answer three questions out of 5. Each question carries equal marks.

Paper II will be divided into Part I and Part II.
Part I is designed to test the candidate’s knowledge and understanding of Sociological Research Methodology and Methods.
Part II is designed to test the candidate’s knowledge and understanding of two Substantive areas.
Each Part will have three questions. Candidates will be required to answer two questions from Part I and one question from Part II.
Each question carries equal marks.

Paper III will be divided into Part I and Part II.
This paper is designed to test the candidates’ knowledge and understanding of four Substantive areas.
Each Part will have three questions. Candidates will be required to answer two questions from Part I and one question from Part II.
Each question carries equal marks.
