

Diploma in Religious Studies

Learning outcomes:

Knowledge Understanding

Understands the basic principles that guide the Church in its actions as a community and as a body of individual disciples

Possesses a measure of understanding of Sacred Scripture as God's revelation throughout the history of the Jewish people in the Old Testament right up to the culmination of revelation in Jesus Christ

Understands the relationship between philosophical and theological reflection, spiritual growth, and witnessing to faith

Application Understanding

Examines Christian beliefs about the Trinitarian God, the Incarnation, and the History of Salvation

Explores the revelation inherent in the Christian religion

Investigates the interplay between faith, reason and revelation

Communication skills

Communicates and adapt the Christian message according to the context

Communicates theologically-based responses on the Bible and the Teachings of the Church

Judgemental Skills

Responds to basic queries related to faith and belief

Examines and questions one's own spiritual life

Learning Skills

Is aware of the richness and diversity in Catholic teachings and Tradition

Values personal ongoing formation

Autonomy and Responsibility

Reflects theologically on the Bible

Possesses a measure of insight in matters of faith