

EDUCATION ACT
(CAP. 327)

Bye-Laws of 2010 in terms of the General Regulations for University Undergraduate Awards, 2004 for the Diploma in Chinese under the auspices of the Faculty of Arts and the Confucius Institute

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon him by articles 74(5) and 75(6) of the Education Act (Cap. 327), the Chancellor of the University of Malta has promulgated the following bye-laws made by the Boards of the Faculty of Arts and the Confucius Institute in virtue of the powers conferred upon them by article 81(1) of the said Act and which have been approved by the Senate of the University of Malta as required by article 81(2) of the said Act:

Citation and Interpretation

1. (1) These bye-laws may be cited as the Bye-Laws of 2010 in terms of the General Regulations for University Undergraduate Awards, 2004 for the Diploma in Chinese under the auspices of the Faculty of Arts and the Confucius Institute.

(2) In these bye-laws, unless the context otherwise requires -

“the Board of Studies” means the Board of Studies appointed by Senate for the Course, on the recommendations of the Boards of the Faculty of Arts and of the Confucius Institute;

“the Course” means the programme of study leading to the Diploma in Chinese; and

“the Diploma” means the Diploma in Chinese.

Applicability

2. These bye-laws shall be applicable for courses commencing in October 2010 or later.

Requirements for Admission

3. To be registered as regular students in the Course, applicants shall satisfy the general requirements for admission as specified in the Admission Regulations of the University.

Course Duration

4. The Course shall extend over a period of two semesters of full-time study or the equivalent in part-time study.

Board of Studies

5. (1) The academic administration of the Course shall be entrusted to a Board of Studies appointed for the purpose.

(2) The Board of Studies shall be composed of:

(a) a Chairperson appointed by the Senate on the recommendation of the Boards of the Faculty of Arts and the Confucius Institute;

(b) the Course coordinator appointed by Senate after consultation with the Boards of the Faculty of Arts and the Confucius Institute; and

(c) an academic representative from each of the Faculty of Arts and the Confucius Institute;

(d) two student representatives chosen from the students registered for the Course.

Course Programme

6. The Course shall consist of study-units to which 60 credits are assigned.

Classification of the Award

7. The Final Weighted Average Mark for the purpose of the classification of the Diploma shall be based on the results obtained during the Course, all credits being weighted equally.
