

ANNOUNCING A SEMINAR

Date: - 3rd February, 2011

Time: - 4.45 p.m. – 7.30 p.m.

Venue: - Europa House, 254, St. Paul's Street, Valletta

MIGRATION INTO EUROPE: RIGHTS AND REALITIES

Held by the

Department of European & Comparative Law at the Faculty of Laws and Malta European Studies Association (M.E.S.A) with the support of the European Commission and in collaboration with European Parliament Office, Malta, and Assoċjazzjoni Maltija Għall-Istudji Tad-Dritt Ewropew (A.M.S.D.E.)

Programme

- 4.45 p.m. Registration.
- 5.30 p.m. Professor Elspeth Guild - Who is a migrant? EU law and the categorization of people.
- 6.15 p.m. Professor Gerard Boucher - Liberal Restrictiveness, Social Cohesion and Third-Country Nationals in Europe
- 7.00 p.m. Discussion
- 7.30 p.m. Close of Seminar

Booking is on a first come first served basis. Places are limited.

To Book your place: -

Please send an email with full name, organization (if any), address, ID Number and telephone number to Ms Elisa Attard on elisa.attard@um.edu.mt by not later than Thursday 27th January, 2011 at 12.00 noon. (Please only place a booking if you are sure that you will attend).

Registration on the Day:-

Registration on the 3rd February, 2011 will be granted only to those with a previous 'email' booking. Admission to the building and registration will be strictly against presentation of a valid identity document.

Please register by 5.20 p.m. on the 3rd February, 2011.

