

Declaration on Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the unacknowledged use, as one's own, of work of another person, whether or not such work has been published (Regulations Governing Conduct at Examinations, 1997).

This declaration is being made in accordance with the Faculties of Science and of Information and Communications Technology Guidelines on Plagiarism, June 2007. These guidelines state that, where such declaration is required work shall not be marked, and shall receive a mark of 0, if the declaration is missing or incomplete.

The guidelines also require that all work submitted for assessment shall be accompanied by a machine-readable copy that will be retained up to one year following a student's graduation. If the machine readable copy is not submitted, or is found to be different from the physical copy of the submission, then the physical copy shall not be assessed, and shall be awarded a mark of 0.

I/we, the undersigned, declare that the submitted work indicated below is my/our work, except where duly acknowledged and referenced.

I/we, the undersigned, understand that plagiarism is a serious offense carrying penalties as stipulated in Part 4 of the Faculties of Science and of Information and Communications Technology Guidelines on Plagiarism (June 2007), and Article 6c of the Regulations Governing Conduct at Examinations (1997).
