

UNIVERSITY OF MALTA
L-Università ta' Malta

New Students, New Courses and Total Number of Students

Academic Year 2016-2017

New students

The University of Malta starts its new Academic Year today, with over 3789¹ new students.

2648 students will be registering for undergraduate courses, while 1141 students will be reading for postgraduate degrees.

Another 1059 new students will be joining Junior College, to bring the total number of students to 2140.

International students

A total of 709 international students representing 85 different countries will be pursuing studies at the University this year.

Total number of students

The total number of students at the University of Malta for academic year 2016-2017 is 12101, of which 5068 are male and 7033 female, following a total of 873 courses.

New courses

The University offers students an increasingly large and diverse choice of courses with different areas of study. New courses and areas of study for this year include:

New Postgraduate Courses

Master of Advocacy
Master of Notarial Studies
Master in Teaching and Learning
Master of Science in Economics
Master of Surgery
Master of Arts in Archaeological Practice
Master of Arts in Global Maritime Archaeology
Master in Lifelong Career Guidance and Development

¹ Number of new students updated as at 3 October 2016

Master of Arts in Youth Justice
Master of Gender, Society and Culture
Master of Science in Aerospace
Postgraduate Certificate in Educational Mentoring

New Postgraduate Routes

Master of Education in Graphical Communication Education and Engineering Drawing Education
Master of Education in Symbol Literacy
Master of Science in Biomedical Sciences (Cell Therapy and Tissue Banking)
Master of Science in Pathology

New Undergraduate Courses

Bachelor in Theatre (Honours)
Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Social Wellbeing Studies
Bachelor of Science (Honours) in Home Economics
Diploma fil-Letteratura Maltija
Diploma in Creativity, Innovation and Entrepreneurship
Higher Diploma in Aviation
Certificate in Community Access for Disabled People

At present, the Admissions Office is working to process applications from persons who sat for the Matriculation Examination's September Session and whose were published last week. These applicants have been advised that in case of a positive result which should qualify them for the course of their choice, they can attend lectures even before they receive their official letter of acceptance.

Applications for a number of courses are still being accepted. Deadline is 19th October.

View list of available courses through the following list:
<http://www.um.edu.mt/registrar/prospective/admissions>

*Marketing, Communications & Alumni Office
03.10.2016*