

L-Università
ta' Malta

Overview of the

Master in Lifelong Career Guidance and Development

Specifically designed for the Middle East and North Africa region

OFFERED
ONLINE

To be offered with the expert support of:

L-Università ta' Malta

CAREER
GUIDANCE
*helping weave
a worthy life*

Programme intended for

- Graduates who already work or wish to work in the field of career education and guidance

Especially for

- Career advisors/guidance teachers within educational settings
- Employment advisors in the public employment service
- Recruitment advisors in private recruitment agencies
- Policy makers

Learning outcomes

- Appreciate the contribution of lifelong career guidance to the development of individuals & society
- Critically examine context-appropriate career education & guidance theories and models
- Understand career development in relation to education & in/formal labour market trends
- Critically engage with career guidance policies developed internationally
- Carry out career guidance interventions with different client groups in various settings

Learning outcomes

- Use appropriate career guidance tools in educational & work-related organisations
- Carry out & present high quality research
- Demonstrate professional skills
- Contribute to the advancement of professional lifelong career guidance & development
- Foster awareness of gender-related career development issues

Admission requirements

- Bachelor degree (at least Category IIB) in relevant area
- Applicants are required to demonstrate that they have the necessary aptitude and disposition to follow the programme of study with profit
- Maximum number of students: 25

Programme Structure

- Offered ONLINE
- Two year part-time
- Three semesters per year (Oct-Jan; Feb-Jun; Jul-Sep)
- Mainly lecture-based
- Evening lectures, twice weekly

Overview of Study Units

SEMESTER 1

Sociology of work

Skills in vocational guidance & counselling for career guidance practitioners

Guidance theories, models and strategies

Research methods and design

Note: Introduction to Academic Life and Study Skills will be offered during Semester 1

Overview of Study Units

SEMESTER 2

The labour market

Career guidance tools

Service provision for different client groups

Professional development

Overview of Study Units

SEMESTER 3

Placement in career guidance settings

SEMESTERS 3 & 4

Career guidance practice

SEMESTER 4

Career guidance management

Career development and lifelong learning

Overview of Study Units

SEMESTER 5

Applied Quantitative Techniques for Career Guidance OR Applied Qualitative Techniques for Career Guidance

SEMESTERS 5 & 6

Dissertation

Fees and funding

Non-EU/Non-EEA Applicants:

Total Tuition Fees: Eur 10,800 (Eur 5,400 per year)

Partial scholarships are being offered by the University of Malta

L-Università
ta' Malta

Thank you for your attention

➤ um.edu.mt/study/mastercareerguidance

For further information, please email:

✉ ronald.sultana@um.edu.mt

✉ manwel.debono@um.edu.mt

Course coordinators

Prof. Ronald G. Sultana

Professor, University of Malta

Faculty of Education, and Director,
Euro-Mediterranean Centre for Educational Research

➤ um.edu.mt/profile/ronaldsultana

Dr Manwel Debono

Senior Lecturer, University of Malta
Centre for Labour Studies

➤ um.edu.mt/profile/manweldebono