A group of senior officials from a number of Commonwealth Countries recently met at the University Gozo Centre to discuss banking and finance issues in their respective countries. The event was part of a two-week workshop organised by the Islands and Small States Institute of the University of Malta, and the Commonwealth Secretariat on “Banking and Finance in Small States”.

The Gozo Observer is a quarterly journal issued by the University of Malta Gozo Centre. It contains articles relating to all aspects of life in Gozo, including culture, education, business, arts and literature. The first six issues of ‘The Gozo Observer’ have been collected in a CD which, besides having all the articles, contains all the illustrations in colour. It also has an extensive index as well as a search facility.

The CD is produced by ICS Ltd., and can be obtained from either the University Gozo Centre, Mgarr Road, Xewkija Gozo, Tel: 21564559; e-mail: ugc@um.edu.mt, or from ICS Ltd., J.F. Kennedy Square, Victoria, Tel: 21558784; e-mail: ics@gozo.com.
