If vacant places are still available, applicants who satisfy all entry requirements after the 31 August and before the 30 September shall be considered to take up the remaining places.

Course Duration

6. The Course shall extend over a period of three years of full-time study or five years of part-time study when the Course is offered on a part-time basis.

Course Programme

7. Applicants shall be required to indicate their choice of areas of study at the time of applying for admission.

8. (1) At the end of the first year of the Course, students shall be required to choose between the B.A. (Hons) and the B.A. degrees. Students shall be allowed to proceed to the B.A. (Hons) degree (except in the areas of study listed under paragraph (2) of bye-law 3) if at the end of the first year of study they obtain a minimum average mark of 65% in the chosen area of study.

(2) Students who obtain the 65% minimum average mark in the area of study chosen for the Honours Course but lack up to 10 credits for any compulsory study-units in this area of study may be allowed to proceed conditionally to Year II of the B.A. (Hons) Course, provided that they successfully complete the failed compulsory unit/s during the following year.

(3) Students who wish to proceed to the B.A. (Hons) course in a successfully completed area of study, but do not possess the necessary average mark of 65% in that area of study (as required by paragraph (1) of this bye-law) may be allowed by the Board to follow the first year programme (without exemptions) in that area in an additional year of study in order to try and obtain the required average mark. This provision may be availed of once only during the Course.

9. The Board shall publish the Course Programme for the Degree and the Programme of Study for each area, as Main Honours, Main and/or as Subsidiary as applicable, at the commencement of each Course. Subject to changes that the Board may, with the approval of Senate, be constrained to make, students are bound to follow the study-units and obtain the credits as indicated in the Course Programme and in the Programmes of Study of the areas of study they are following for the Degree, Provided that Course Programmes and Programmes of Study are drawn up in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Principal Regulations.

10. (1) The third year of the programmes of study of all areas of study for B.A. (Hons) students shall include either (a) synoptic study-units assigned a total of 12 credits and a dissertation assigned 12 credits, or (b) synoptic study-units to which a total of 24 credits are assigned.

(2) The third year of the programmes of study of all areas of study for B.A. students shall include synoptic study-units to which a total of 12 credits are assigned.

(3) Synoptic study-units shall be assessed by means of a Final Examination only and the dissertation shall be assessed by a viva voce examination.

11. (1) Students in the B.A.(Hons) course shall be required to register and obtain credits for study-units to which a total of not less than 180 credits are assigned, of which not less than 132 credits shall be in the area taken for Honours and not less than 36 credits shall be in the Subsidiary area.

(2) Students in the B.A. course shall be required to register and obtain credits for study-units to which a total of not less than 180 credits are assigned, of which not less than 80 credits shall be obtained in each of the two Main areas of study.

Classification of the Awards

12. The Final Weighted Average Mark for the classification of the Degree shall be based on the results obtained in the three years of the Course, which shall be weighted as follows:

First Year Average Mark	10%
Second Year Average Mark	25%
Third Year Average Mark of the synoptic and/or dissertation study-units	40%

Third Year Average Mark of the other 36 credits 25%.
