Notes:

* In courses where a limited number of students is indicated (deadline 19 July 2018 at 2pm), and if specified in the bye-laws, those applicants who are fully qualified and who submit all required documents by the end of August 2018, will be considered first and placed in rank order according to the selection criteria approved by Senate and those for whom places are available will be informed immediately. For the selection criteria, please refer to the University's website: <http://www.um.edu.mt/registrar/regulations/faculties>.
No late applications are accepted for courses in which the number of students is limited.

Unless indicated otherwise, all qualifications / courses referred to in this document are awarded / offered by the University of Malta.

The University reserves the right not to offer courses / areas of study for which there is not a sufficient number of qualified applicants or where adequate supervision is not available. The commencement of any course is subject to availability of resources at the time of opening and other factors beyond the University's control.

The University's academic year is divided in two semesters: the first semester runs from October to January, whilst the second semester runs from February to May. Some postgraduate courses may include a summer semester (June to September).

The University also offers doctoral degrees (Doctor of Philosophy, Doctor of Music, and Doctor of Sacred Theology) on a full-time or part-time basis for which applications are received at any time of the year. Tuition, annual enrolment, and bench fees may be payable, including for part-time courses. Further information regarding course fees is available online at: <http://www.um.edu.mt/finance/service/coursefees>

Lectures for study-units relating to courses offered on a full-time and part-time day basis may be held on any day from Monday to Friday between 0800 and 2000 hours. Lectures for part-time evening courses may be held from Monday to Friday between 1600 and 2000 hours. The University shall endeavour to announce the days on which a course is to be held prior to its commencement. However, it cannot be bound by fixed days and times for the duration of the whole course. Applicants are encouraged to consult the respective Faculty/Institute/Centre/School for further information.

Other courses may be added in due course.
