Income Tax Returns and Returns of Capital Assets

The Commissioner of Inland Revenue invites attention to the provisions of sections 37 (2) and 37A (2) of the Income Tax Act which states that:—

(a) any person chargeable with tax who has not received by the 28th February, 1981, a notice requiring him to declare his income is to give notice to the Commissioner that he is so chargeable;

(b) any person owning capital assets which should be declared for the purposes of the Act who has not received by the 28th February, 1981, a notice requiring him to do so, is under the obligation to request the Commissioner to furnish him with a return in order to enable the declaration to be submitted.

The requirements of the Act apply to all individuals, associations, entities and other bodies of persons. Failure to comply may render the person or bodies of persons involved liable to the penalties contemplated in the Act. This notice does not apply to companies and other taxpayers who will be filing audited accounts. In their case, the time limit for the filing of returns is the 30th June, 1981.
