It is hereby notified that the Court of Appeal by means of a decree given on the 14th March 2000 ordered the publication of the extract which appears hereunder for the purpose of service according to Article 187(3) of Chapter 12.

By means of an application filed in the Court of Appeal in the records of the Writ of Summons number 1129/91 DS in the names Maria Dolores sive Doris Spiteri vs Mark sive Marc Caruana, by Mark Caruana the applicant premised and asked:

1. That by a judgement of the First Hall of the Civil Court of the 12th July 1999 in the cause in the names premised the Honourable Court of First Instance decided by acceding to the plaintiff's demands and condemned the defendant to pay the plaintiff the sum of Lm1,695 balance of a larger sum lent to him brevi manu with costs and interests as requested against the defendant respondent.

2. Whereas it appeared that there were reasons which aggrieved the applicant by the said judgement an appeal is being entered from it.

3. This appeal is being entered against the whole judgement.

Thus whilst ample reference is being made to the proof brought forward in the First Instance and whilst reserving the right of bringing proof at this stage, the appellant humbly asks this Honourable Court to revoke the judgement appealed against by the First Hall of the Civil Court on the 12th July 1999 in the names premised.

With costs of both instances against the respondent appealed against.

Ikun jaf kulhadd illi l-Qorti ta' l-Appell b'digriet moghti fl-14 ta' Marzu 2000 ordnat il-pubblikazzjoni ta' l-estratt li jidher hawn taht biex isservi ta' notifika skond l-Artikolu 187(3) tal-Kap 12.

Illi b'sentenza tal-Prim Awla tal-Qorti Ċivili tal-10 ta' Dicembru 1999, l-esponent gie kkundannat iħallas l-ammont ta' (Lm1000) ta' self brevi manu magħmul lilu f'diversi okkażjonijiet. Il-Qorti rriduċiet l-ammont b'mitejn lira (Lm200) mit-talba oriġinali stante li s-self kien magħmul meta hu kien minuri.

L-aggravju hu ċar u manifest u jikkonsisti f'dan li ġej:

Il-prinċipju legali huwa ċar u gie aċċettat biss limitament mill-Qorti għal mitejn lira (Lm200). L-esponent kien minuri meta kien għarus lit-tifla ta' l-attriċi u għanet wara li għalaq it-tmintax-il sena hassar minn magħha.

Però mill-aspett legali din in-naħa ma taqbel xejn ma' dak li tgħid l-ewwel Onorabbli Qorti illi f'dan il-każ kull ma kellha ttipprova l-attriċi kien is-self u kull kwistjoni ta' meta sar is-self, biex turi li l-esponenti kien taht it-tmintax-il sena tispetta lill-konvenut.

Bir-rispett l-ispostament ta' l-oneru tal-prova ma jgħaddix minn fuq l-attur jew l-attriċi għal fuq il-konvenut f'każ bħal dan ta' l-attriċi illi trid ttiprovaha li saret mhux biss fattwali imma li anki r-rapport giuridku legali kien jeżisti. Għalhekk ir-raġunijiet ta' l-ewwel Qorti fejn tgħid li l-konvenut ma rnexxilux jipprova bir-rispett dan il-piż ma kienx mixhut fuqu bil-liġi u lanqas mir-raġuni.

It is hereby notified that the Court of Appeal by decree given on the 14th March 2000 ordered the publication of the extract which appears hereunder according to Art 187(3) of Chapter 12.

By means of an application filed on the 30th December 1999 in the Court of Appeal in the records of the Writ of Summons 1079/93 FGC in the names Katy Camilleri vs Kevin Zahra filed by Kevin Zahra, the applicant premised and asked:

That by a judgement of the First Hall of the Civil Court on the 10th December 1999, the applicant was condemned to pay the ammount of (Lm1000) of loan brevi manu made to him on various occassions. The Court reduced the amount by two hundred pounds (Lm200) from the original demand since the loan was made when he was a minor.

The applicant felt aggrieved by the said judgement and is thus entering this appeal.

The grievance is clear and manifest and consists in the following.

The legal principle is clear, which was accepted only limitedly by the Court for two hundred pounds (Lm200). The applicant was a minor when he was engaged to the daughter of the plaintiff and days after he was eighteen years old he left her.

However from the legal aspect this side does not agree with that stated by the Honourable First Court, that in this case what the plaintiff had to prove was, the loan and any question of when the loan was made to show that the applicant was under eighteen years should be made by the defendant.

With respect, the shifting of the balance of proof does not pass from the plaintiff on to the defendant, the plaintiff has to prove that there existed a factual and a legal juridical relationship. Thus the reasoning of the First Court which says that the defendant did not succeed in making this proof doesnot fall on him by reason or by law.

Thus applicant asks with respect that this Honourable Court orders the varying of the judgement appealed from by confirming it in that part whereby they did not grant the plaintiff's request for the payment of Lm200 as part of the original sum and to revoke the rest of the judgement in her interest.

With the costs of both instances against the plaintiff appealed against.

EDUCATION ACT
(CAP. 327)

Bye-Laws of 2000 for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy - Ph.D. - in the Institute for Masonry and Construction Research

IN exercise of the powers conferred upon him by sections 30 (5) and 31 (6) of the Education Act (Cap. 327), the Chancellor of the University of Malta has promulgated the following bye-laws made by the Board of the Institute for Masonry and Construction Research in virtue of the powers conferred upon it by section 37 (1) of the said Act and which have been approved by the Senate of the University of Malta as required by section 37 (2) of the said Act:

Citation and interpretation

1. (1) These bye-laws may be cited as the Bye-Laws of 2000 for the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy - Ph.D. - in the Institute for Masonry and Construction Research.

(2) In these bye-laws, unless the context otherwise requires -

“the Board” means the Board of the Institute for Masonry and Construction Research;

“the Degree” means the Degree of Doctor of Philosophy - Ph.D.; and

“the Institute” means the Institute for Masonry and Construction Research.

Applicability

2. These bye-laws shall be applicable from October 1994 onwards.

Admission Requirements

3. To register for the Degree, candidates must satisfy the admission requirements as specified in the Regulations for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

4. Candidates' research proposals should indicate clearly the research questions in the field to be addressed, the hypotheses to be tested and the methodology to be adopted in dealing with the research issues. If the Board deems it necessary, candidates may be required to demonstrate competence in those skills required by the related nature of the investigation.

5. Before registering for the Degree, candidates shall normally be required to register in the first instance for the degree of Master of Philosophy. Only in exceptional circumstances shall candidates be considered for direct registration to the Degree.

Progress and Supervision

6. Students shall be required to register every twelve months on the written recommendation of their supervisor.

7. The Board shall nominate one or more supervisors from amongst the academic staff of the University of Malta. The Board shall not normally nominate as supervisor a person whose academic qualifications are of a level lower than that of the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

8. Students registered for the Degree shall be required to participate fully in the research seminars of the Institute.

9. The thesis should report the discovery of new facts and/or demonstrate that the student has exercised independent critical power in reaching the reported conclusions. In both respects, the student must indicate clearly the extent to which the thesis embodies the results of his own research and observations, and to what extent the investigation advances the study of the subject.

10. Any changes to the title of the thesis must first be approved by the Board, on the written recommendation of the supervisor, and shall then be submitted for the approval of Senate.

Thesis Format and Presentation

11. The thesis shall not normally be less than 35,000 words and shall not exceed 60,000 words, exclusive of appendices, bibliographies, glossaries and footnotes.

12. Students shall be required to submit three copies of the thesis, either typewritten or printed, and adequately bound for the purpose of the oral examination. They shall be required to bring to the oral examination a fourth copy of the thesis, similarly bound and paginated.

13. (a) After the oral examination, and after incorporating any amendments the Board of Examiners may require, students shall submit two further copies hard bound in art vellum or cloth, dark maroon in colour, overcut with edges uncut, and lettered boldly in gold up back indicating the degree, the date and the name of the student, and on the front the title of the work. The letters shall be between 12mm and 30mm high.

(b) The text must be typed or printed on A4 sheets, on one side only, in double spacing, and with a margin of 40mm to the left, and at least 20mm top, bottom and right.

(c) Drawings, maps and other illustrations, which are unavoidably larger than A4 shall be properly folded to A4 size, so that they can be neatly bound within the thesis.

(d) Students shall also be required to present a short abstract of their thesis of not more than 500 words which shall be bound with each copy of the thesis submitted to the University. One of these copies shall be deposited in the Library of the University of Malta, and the other in the library of the Institute.

14. Students may, with the permission of the Board, publish part of the work prior to its submission as a thesis, provided that in the published work it is nowhere stated that it is in consideration for a higher degree. Such published work may later be incorporated in the thesis submitted to the University.

(2) To be registered as regular students in either course, applicants must, besides satisfying the General Entry Requirements specified in the Admission Regulations of the University, satisfy the Special Course Requirements stipulated in regulation 5 as well as the Special Course Requirements of the faculty offering the area/s of study in terms of regulation 6.3.2 of the Admission Regulations, where applicable.

5. (1) Applicants choosing to study any of the following areas of study must be in possession of a pass at Advanced Level at Grade C or better in the Matriculation Certificate Examination or equivalent in the subject: Economics, English, French, German Studies, History, Italian, Maltese, or Music Studies.

(2) With effect from October 2000 applicants choosing to study:

(a) International Relations must be in possession of a pass at Advanced Level at Grade C or better in History; and

(b) Psychology must be in possession of a pass at Intermediate Level at Grade C or better in Biology.

(3) Applicants choosing to study any of the following areas of study must be in possession of the Special Course Requirements indicated by the faculty offering these areas of study in terms of regulation 6.3.2 of the Admission Regulations:

Computer Science, Informatics or Mathematics.

Areas of Study

6. (1) The following areas of study may be offered in both Courses:

Anthropology, Arabic, Archaeology, Art, Classics, Computer Science, Contemporary Mediterranean Studies, English, French, Geography, History, International Relations, Italian, Linguistics, Maltese, Music Studies, Philosophy, Social Studies, Sociology, Theatre Studies, and any other area of study as recommended by the Board and approved by Senate.

(2) The following areas of study may be offered only in the B.A. course:

American Studies*, Communication Studies, Comparative Religion, Economics, German Studies, Greek*, Hispanic Studies*, Informatics, Latin*, Mathematics, Mediterranean Studies, Near Eastern Studies, Psychology, and any other area of studies as recommended by the Board and approved by Senate.

* offered only as a secondary area of study

(3) The following areas of study may not be chosen together:

- Anthropology and Contemporary Mediterranean Studies
- Any two of Computer Science, Informatics and Mathematics
- Geography and Contemporary Mediterranean Studies
- Near Eastern Studies with either Arabic or Archaeology
- Social Studies and Sociology

Before the commencement of either course, the Board may indicate other combinations of areas of study which may not be chosen together.

(4) The Board may, with the approval of Senate, allow students to choose areas of study not included in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this regulation.

(5) Students choosing areas of study offered by other faculties shall be subject to the regulations relating to those areas of study in the relevant course as far as Special Course Requirements, study-units and examinations are concerned.

(6) The areas of study listed in paragraphs (1) and (2) of this regulation and combinations of areas of study shall be offered depending on the availability of resources and the number of applicants who choose them.

Duration of the Courses

7. (1) The Courses shall extend over a period of three years of full-time studies or five years of part-time studies. The Board may allow students to complete a full-time course in not more than four years, and a part-time course in not more than seven years from the date of first admission, under those conditions it may impose. The part-time course shall lead to the Bachelor of Arts and shall be offered only in the evening.

(2) In special circumstances, Senate may allow a further extension of one year, on the recommendation of the Board.

(3) The Senate, acting on the advice of the Board, may allow students, for a good and sufficient reason, to suspend their studies for a maximum of twelve months.

Registration for Courses and for Study-Units

8. (1) Students shall be required to register before the beginning of each academic year and to register for study-units before the beginning of each semester within the period stipulated by the Office of the Registrar.

(2) Students shall be awarded a grade for a study-unit only if they have registered for it on the Study-Unit Registration Form. At the beginning of each semester, students may add or drop a study-unit on the prescribed form and within the period stipulated by the Office of the Registrar.

(3) Students are expected to inform the Registrar in writing if they resign from the course, indicating the date of their resignation.

Courses of Studies

9. Each course shall consist of study-units to which at least 76 credits shall be assigned and shall be structured as follows:

(a) Year One shall be common for students admitted to either course and shall consist of study-units at Level 1 and Level 2 in two principal areas of study;

(b) Years Two and Three of the B.A. course shall consist of study-units at Level 2 and Level 3 in two principal areas of study;

(c) Years Two and Three of the B.A. (Hons) course shall consist of study-units at Level 2 and Level 3 in one principal area of study;

(d) Compulsory study-units in History of Mediterranean Civilisation which must be obtained during Years One and Two; and

(e) Optional study-units in any area of study approved by the University, including the principal areas of study already chosen, which must be obtained during Year Two and Year Three.

Catalogue of Study-Units

10. The Board shall draw up a catalogue of study-units for each area of study. The catalogue shall indicate the level, code, title, description and type of each study-unit, the credits assigned to each study-unit, which study-units are compulsory, concurrent or pre-requisites for other study-units, the methods of teaching and assessment, and which study-units are offered for full-time and/or part-time courses. The Board shall publish the catalogue prior to the commencement of each course, following the approval of Senate.

Progress and Assessment

11. (1) In each year of both Courses students must obtain the following credits:

(a) in Year One: 10 credits in each of the two principal areas of study, and 6 credits in History of Mediterranean Civilisation;

(b) in Year Two of the:

- B.A. course: 10 credits in each of the two principal areas of study, and 6 credits in History of Mediterranean Civilisation;
- B.A. (Hons) course: 20 credits in the principal area of study, and 6 credits in History of Mediterranean Civilisation;

(c) in Year Three of the:

- B.A. course: 11 credits in each of the two principal areas of study (which may include a dissertation to which 7 credits are assigned in one of the areas of study);
- B.A. (Hons) course: 22 credits in the principal area of study (which may include a dissertation to which 7 credits are assigned); and

(d) during Year Two and Year Three of both courses: optional study units, to which at least 2 credits are assigned in any area of studies approved by the University, including the principal areas already chosen.

(2) Students must obtain the following credits for study-units at Level 3 in the:

(a) B.A. course: at least 8 credits in each of the principal areas of study; and

(b) B.A. (Hons) course: at least 24 credits in the principal area of study.

12. (1) In each year students shall be required to register for study-units for which not less than the number of credits indicated in regulation 11 and not more than 30 credits are assigned.

(2) The Board may allow students to change one principal area of study during Year One of the course, provided they satisfy all the requirements laid down in these regulations.

(3) The Board may allow students admitted to the B.A. course to choose two secondary areas of study instead of one of the principal areas of study. In such cases, the requirements for each secondary area of study shall be half the requirements for a principal area of study stipulated in these regulations.

13. (1) Students in Year One or Year Two of either course who do not satisfy all the requirements stipulated in sub-paragraphs (a) or (b) of paragraph (1) of regulation 11 may be allowed by the Board to proceed to the following year, provided they have obtained not less than 22 credits. The missing credits must be obtained during the successive year.

(2) Students in Year Three who do not satisfy all the requirements stipulated in sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph (1) of regulation 11 but obtain not less than 14 credits may be allowed by the Board to extend their studies by one year if permitted in terms of paragraph (1) of regulation 7, provided that during this additional year such students shall be required to obtain not less than 16 credits (including the missing credits of Year Three).

(3) Students in Year Three who obtain less than 14 credits shall not be allowed to continue the course, unless in special circumstances, on the recommendation of the Board and with the permission of Senate.

14. Students may not register for a study-unit for which they do not have the pre-requisites or without registering also for its concurrent study-unit/s, except with the permission of the Board.

15. (1) Credits shall be assigned according to the following grades in descending order of merit: A, B, C, and D. Failure shall be indicated by F. Incomplete work due to justifiable reasons (illness, approved absence, etc.) shall be indicated by I. In all other cases the results of uncompleted study-units shall be indicated as F. The grades awarded shall take into account the students' performance in one or more of the following elements, as deemed appropriate by the Board: coursework, fieldwork, practical, written and/or oral assessments.

(2) Students who fail in any study-unit shall be allowed a supplementary assessment. Such a supplementary assessment should normally have the same mode of assessment as the corresponding first assessment. A supplementary assessment of a study-unit shall be held at the next scheduled examination session (May or September) as the case may be. In the case of assignments, the supplementary assessment shall be made by arrangement with the lecturer concerned. In the supplementary assessment, the maximum grade that may be awarded shall be grade D.

(3) If unsuccessful in the supplementary assessment, students may re-take the study-unit again once only. When students fail a re-taken study-unit, they shall be allowed a final supplementary assessment. In the case of study-units which are re-taken, the maximum grade that may be awarded in the assessment and the final supplementary assessment shall be grade D.

(4) Students shall not be allowed to be re-assessed for a study-unit if they have already been awarded credit for it.

16. The Board may allow students to transfer credits obtained for study-units in a course of studies at this University or at a university recognised for the purpose by the Senate, provided such study-units are comparable in content and level to the ones offered in the Courses. Not more than one-third of the minimum number of credits required for the award of the Degree may be transferred.

Transfer between Courses

17. Students who, at the end of Year One, have obtained the credits required for that year, may be allowed by the Board to transfer their studies to Year Two of either the B.A. course or the B.A. (Hons) course (choosing one principal area of study from those already taken in Year One) as the case may be.

Synoptic Examinations

18. Students shall be eligible to sit for the Synoptic Examinations if, by the end of Year Three, they have registered for, and completed, study-units to which a minimum of 76 credits are assigned and have obtained at least 62 credits.

19. (1) Synoptic Examinations shall normally be held in June and shall consist of the following:

(a) two three-hour written papers in each principal area of study of the B.A. course; and

(b) four three-hour written papers in the principal area of study of the B.A. (Hons) course.

(2) A viva voce examination may also be held.

Supplementary Session of the Synoptic Examinations

20. (1) Students who fail in any paper of the Synoptic Examinations in any area of study shall be required to sit for the failed paper/s in the September Supplementary Session of the Synoptic Examinations. If successful, the maximum grade that may be awarded shall be grade D.

(2) In the case of failure in the Supplementary Session of the Synoptic Examinations, students shall be required to re-sit all the papers in the failed area/s in June of the following year, with the possibility of re-sitting any failed paper/s in the September Supplementary Session of the Synoptic Examinations. If successful, the maximum grade that may be awarded shall be grade D. If unsuccessful, such students shall be considered to have failed the course.

Final Result

21. (1) The final result shall take into consideration the students' performance in the study-units and in the Synoptic Examinations according to the following weighting:

Study-Units	50%
Synoptic Examinations	50%.

(2) For the purpose of paragraph (1) of this regulation the weighting for the study-units shall be calculated on the basis of an overall average of the credits obtained. If more than 76 credits are obtained, the best 76 credits (including the credits for all the compulsory study-units) shall be taken into account.

(3) The names of students who have qualified for the award of the Degree shall be published in a list in alphabetical order as follows:

(a) for the B.A. Degree: Category I, IIA, IIB and III; and

(b) for the B.A. (Hons) Degree:

First Class Honours

Second Class Honours (Upper Division)

Second Class Honours (Lower Division)

Third Class Honours

Pass.

Special Provisions for Part-Time Courses

Registration

22. (1) The Board may, from time to time, offer the course leading to the Bachelor of Arts on a part-time basis in the evening in areas of study which shall be indicated before the commencement of each course.

(2) The provisions of the foregoing regulations shall apply mutatis mutandis to courses offered on a part-time basis.
