SCHEDULE

Interpretation.

1. In this Schedule unless the context otherwise requires:—

“Customary Holidays” means the days (other than Sundays) declared for the time being to be public holidays by or under the National Day and other Public Holidays Act, 1975;

“day” means a period running from midnight of one day to midnight of the next following day;

“half-day” means a period of twelve consecutive hours ending at 1.00 p.m. or 1.00 a.m.;

“hours of work” means the time of any day during which employees are at the disposal of the employer, exclusive of the intervals allowed for meals and rest;

“part-time employee” means an employee who is not a whole-time employee;

“period of employment” means the time in any day during which employees are at the disposal of the employer, but inclusive of the intervals allowed for meals and rest;

“remuneration” means wages or earnings payable in money by an employer to an employee;

“time-and-a-half” and “double-time” mean respectively one and a half time and twice the minimum time rate applicable to the employee;

“week” means a calendar week;

“weekly day of rest” means a period of twenty-four consecutive hours commencing at the time at which the worker would normally commence his turn of duty;

“whole-time employee” means an employee who is employed for more than 30 hours in any one week, spread over not less than four days.

Hours of work.

2. The minimum weekly remuneration shall be related to a week of not more than —

(a) forty-four hours of work in the case of whole-time employees other than watchmen; and

(b) fifty-four hours of work in the case of watchmen.

Minimum remuneration of whole-time employees.

3. The minimum weekly remuneration payable to whole-time employees shall be the following:—

SCHEDULE

Definitions.

1. In this Schedule, unless the context otherwise requires —

"customary holidays" means the days (other than Sundays) declared for the time being to be public holidays by or under the National Day and other Public Holidays Act, 1975;

"day worker" means an employee who is not a night worker;

"hours of work" means the time on any day during which an employee is at the disposal of the employer, exclusive of the intervals allowed for meals and rest;

"part-time employee" means an employee who is not a whole-time employee;

"period of employment" means the time in any day during which an employee is at the disposal of the employer, but inclusive of the intervals allowed for meals and rest;

"time and a half" means one and a half times the hourly rate obtained by dividing by forty (40), in the case of day worker, and by thirty-eight (38), in the case of a night worker, the minimum weekly remuneration to which the employee is entitled under the provisions of paragraph 3 of this Schedule;

"wage" means remuneration or earnings, payable in money by an employer to an employee;

"whole-time employee" means an employee who works for more than thirty hours in any one week;

“working day”, in respect of any employee, means any day in which such employee is normally expected to work.

2. The minimum weekly remuneration specified in paragraph 3 of this Schedule relates — Hours of work.

(a) in the case of a day worker, to a week of forty (40) hours of work spread over five days;

(b) in the case of a night worker, to a week of thirty-eight (38) hours of work exclusive of overtime, and

(c) in the case of watchman, to a week of forty-eight (48) hours of work exclusive of overtime.

3. The minimum weekly remuneration payable to whole-time employees shall be the following: Minimum remuneration.

(a) Watchmen £14.75,0; and

(b) other employees:

aged 18 years or over £14.75,0

aged 17 years £11.84,0

aged 16 years £10.61,0.

4. Employees, whether day or night workers, shall be allowed intervals of not less, in the aggregate, than one hour for meals and rest in any one period of employment in which the hours of work are not less than five and a half ($5\frac{1}{2}$). Minimum daily rest.

5. Employees shall be allowed one whole day off each week. Minimum weekly rest.

6. (1) Overtime shall be payable as follows: Overtime.

(a) in the case of watchmen, time-and-a-half for all work in excess of forty-eight hours in any week;

(b) in the case of day workers other than watchmen, —

(i) for work in excess of eight (8) hours in any one day time-and-a-half;

(ii) for work in excess of forty (40) hours in any week, exclusive of any time paid for at overtime rates time-and-a-half;

(c) in the case of night workers other than watchmen, —

(i) for work in excess of six and a half ($6\frac{1}{2}$) hours in any period of employment time-and-a-half;

(ii) for work in excess of thirty-eight (38) hours in any week, exclusive of any time paid for at overtime rates time-and-a-half.

(2) Saving the provisions of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph, —

(a) in the case of night workers conditioned to a five (5) day week, the number of hours in excess of which work is to be paid for at overtime rates shall be seven and a half ($7\frac{1}{2}$) hours in any period of employment, and

(b) subject to the provisions of paragraph 7 of this Schedule, in any week in which a working day happens to be a customary holiday, overtime shall be payable for work in excess of thirty-two (32) hours in the case of day workers, and thirty-one and a half (31½) hours in the case of night workers conditioned to a six day week and thirty and a half (30½) hours in the case of night workers conditioned to a five day week.

Holidays.

7. Whole-time employees shall be entitled, in every calendar year, to —

(a) all customary holidays with full pay, and

(b) after three months in employment, vacation leave of such number of working days with full pay as is equivalent to the number of working days as that particular employee should normally attend to work during a period of four weeks:

Provided that whole-time employees who have been in employment for less than one year shall be entitled to such part of the said vacation leave as is in proportion to the number of months in employment.

Sick leave.

8. After the completion of one year's continuous service, employees shall be entitled to twelve days sick leave on full pay in every calendar year, less any sickness benefit to which they may be entitled under the National Insurance Act, 1956, provided that a medical certificate certifying incapacity for work covering the whole period of absence is produced to the employer.

Bereavement leave.

9. Whole-time employees shall be allowed two days paid leave on the occasion of the death of any of the following relatives: the wife or husband, the mother or father (or the person who, at the time, was in fact acting as the mother or father of the employee), the daughter or son, and the sister or brother.

Special leave.

10. Whole-time employees shall be allowed two days paid leave on the occasion of their marriage and one day paid leave on the occasion of the birth of any child to the wife of the employee.

Part-time employees.

11. Part-time employees shall be paid pro rata at an hourly rate not less than that applicable to whole-time employees, namely the appropriate rate per week shown in paragraph 3 of this Schedule, divided by the number of hours as stipulated in paragraph 2 of the said Schedule.

Retiring age.

12. In cases where the retiring age of a male employee is expected at the age of sixty (60) years, such employee shall be given the opportunity by his employer to retain his employment beyond this age at least until the age of sixty-one (61) years, provided that the employee in question shall still be allowed, if he so wishes, to retire at the age of 60 years.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order but is intended to indicate its applicability)

The provisions of the above Schedule will apply to all employees, other than apprentices, in all establishments engaged in printing, publishing or book-binding.
