"normal time", "time-and-a-half" and "double time" mean respectively one time, one-and-a-half and double time, the minimum time rate applicable to the employee;

"part-time employee" means an employee, other than a watchman who is not a whole-time employee:

Provided that he may not be employed for less than 3 hours or for more than 6 hours in any one day;

"period of employment" means the time in any one day during which employees are at the disposal of the employer, but inclusive of the intervals allowed for meals and rest;

"wages" means remuneration or earnings payable in money by an employer to an employee;

"week" means a calendar week;

"weekly day of rest" means a period of twenty-four consecutive hours commencing at the time at which the employee would normally commence his turn of duty;

"whole-time employee" means an employee who is employed for more than twentyfour hours spread over a period of not less than four days in any one week.

Hours of work.

2. (1) No person shall cause or permit any other person employed by him or subject to his orders to drive any car for hire or private-hire bus —

(i) for any continuous period of more than four hours;
or

(ii) for periods, no one of which shall exceed four hours, amounting in the aggregate to more than 12 hours in any period of twenty-four hours commencing at midnight;
or

(iii) so that the driver has not at least nine hours, six of which must be consecutive, for rest in any period of twenty-four hours reckoned from the commencement of any period of driving.

(2) The weekly hours of work shall be:

(a) 42 in the case of clerks/receptionists;

(b) 46 in the case of drivers, conductors/attendants, and other employees;

(c) 60 in the case of watchmen.

(3) The daily hours of work of the categories of employees in sub-paragraph (2) hereof shall be as follows respectively:

(a) minimum 4 hours, maximum 8 hours;

(b) minimum 5 hours, maximum 10 hours;

(c) 12 hours.

(i) for the first 3 hours or less in any one day 96c9;

(ii) for each hour or part thereof in excess of the first 3 hours in any one day 29c1

(c) in the case of conductors and attendants —

	18 years or over	under 18 years
(i) for the first 4 hours or less in any one day	£1.27	£1.06,8;
(ii) for each hour or part thereof in excess of the first 4 hours in any one day	25c8	23c3;
(d) in the case of other employees —
	18 years or over	under 18 years
(i) for the first 3 hours or less in any one day	75c2	70c9;
(ii) for each hour or part thereof in excess of the first 3 hours in any one day	26c	23c1.

5. Save as provided for in sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph (2), all whole-time employees, other than watchmen, shall be allowed intervals for meals and rest of not less, in the aggregate, than one hour every day: Minimum daily rest.

Provided that —

(a) subject to paragraph (b) of this proviso, the interval or intervals shall be allowed after the first or before the last hour of the period of employment; and

(b) where the last half hour of the period of employment is allowed as a half-hour of rest, the employee shall be entitled to leave the place of work as soon as that half hour starts.

6. All employees shall be entitled to one day of rest per week, four days of which, in any calendar year, shall be granted on Sundays, if so requested by the employee. Minimum weekly rest.

7. In the case of all whole-time employees, overtime shall be remunerated as follows: Minimum overtime rates.

(a) for all time worked in excess of the daily hours in any one day, other than on the day of rest or on customary holidays ... time-and-a-half;

(b) for all time worked on the day of rest or on customary holidays ... double time.

8. Whole-time employees shall be entitled, in every calendar year, to — Vacation leave.

(a) all customary holidays with full pay, and

(b) after three months in employment, vacation leave of such number of working days with full pay as is equivalent to the number of working days as that particular employee should normally attend to work during a period of four weeks:

Provided that whole-time employees who have been in employment for less than one year shall be entitled to such part of the said vacation leave as is in proportion to the number of months in employment.

Sick leave.

9. After completing six months in employment, employees shall be entitled to 12 days sick leave on full pay in every calendar year, less any sickness benefit to which they may be entitled under the National Insurance Act, 1956; so however that a medical certificate certifying incapacity for work covering the period of absence is produced to the employer.

Bereavement leave.

10. Employees shall be allowed two days paid leave on the occasion of the death of any of the following relatives: the wife or husband, the father or mother (or the person who at the time was in fact acting as the father or mother of the employee), the son or daughter, and the brother or sister.

Special leave.

11. Employees shall be allowed two days paid leave on the occasion of their marriage and one day paid leave on the occasion of the birth of any child to the wife of the employee.

Waiting time.

12. An employee is entitled to the payment of the minimum remuneration applicable to him for all time during which he is present on the premises of his employer or in any other place in connection with his employment unless he is present thereon in any of the following circumstances:

- (a) without the employer's consent, expressed or implied;
- (b) for some purpose unconnected with his work and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform;
- (c) by reason only of the fact that he is resident thereon;
- (d) during recognised breaks for meals and rest, and he is not waiting for work to be given to him to perform.

Retiring age.

13. In cases where the retiring age of a male employee is expected at the age of 60 years, such employee shall be given the opportunity by his employer to retain his employment beyond this age at least until the age of 61 years, provided that the employee in question shall still be allowed, if he so wishes, to retire at the age of 60 years.

EXPLANATORY NOTE
