Classification of Holiday Premises

The Hotels and Catering Establishments Board will shortly register holiday premises.

Applications for registration, received by the Board up to the 15th July, 1976, have been examined. Holiday premises, which are of the required standard according to Regulations, will be categorised in either 'A' (First Class) category, or in 'B' (Second Class) category.

The Board will notify each keeper about the classification of the relative premises.

No keeper, and no owner or operator of holiday premises shall be permitted by law to use any premises to accommodate holiday makers unless the owner will be in possession of a valid certificate of classification and a licence in respect of the premises. Every keeper to be so licensed must pay to the Board the required fees of licence and registration before the relative licence will be issued.

Because of the considerable number of registrations to be issued, the Office of the Board requires a short period to issue all the notifications.
