BELGIAN FELLOWSHIPS IN INTERNATIONAL LAW

Within the framework of the United Nations Programme of Assistance in the Teaching, Study, Dissemination and Wider Appreciation of International Law, Belgium has decided to offer five fellowships in International Law for nationals of developing countries for the academic year 1976/77.

The Permanent Mission of Belgium would like to see the following technical criteria observed in the selection of fellows for the year 1976/77.

Age

Candidates for fellowships at the post-graduate level must not be more than 30 to 31 years of age. Some exceptions will, of course, be allowed in certain cases where reasonable justification exists.

Physical fitness

It is essential that candidates should have a preliminary medical examination in their own countries at their own expense. Before being finally approved, they will be required to report for a complete medical examination at the Departmental Medical Centre in Brussels.

Language requirements

It is essential that candidates from countries where French and Dutch are not in common use should have at least a rudimentary knowledge of either French or Dutch, depending on the language in which they wish to pursue their studies in Belgium.

An adequate knowledge of English will always be an asset for fellowship studies. In addition, language courses (in French and Dutch) will be arranged for them upon their arrival in Belgium in order to refresh their knowledge.

Level of studies

Candidates must hold a university degree awarded on the basis of not less than a complete four-year course of study and recognized as being equivalent to the training provided by Belgian universities.

When making their fellowship applications, they shall submit a detailed programme of the studies and the special work which they wish to pursue in Belgium.

If the candidate is already attached to a local university, the programme shall be approved in advance by a professor of that university.

The conditions for the award of the fellowship are as follows:

- (a) The fellowship will amount to 10,000 Belgian francs per month;
- (b) The annual maintenance allowance will be 4,000 Belgian francs;
- (c) The annual allowance for educational supplies will be 2,000 Belgian francs;
- (d) The Belgian Government will grant a subsidy for any medical expenses and drugs;
- (e) The Belgian Government will pay the premium for accident and third party civil liability insurance;
- (f) The Belgian Government will pay fellowship holders' travel costs in both directions. Fellowship holders must specify their exact point of departure.

Applications should be made on the appropriate forms obtainable from the Department of Education (Personnel Section), 90, West Street, Valletta, and should reach the same office by not later than Thursday, 18th March, 1976.

Applications from Government and para-statal employees will not be considered unless recommended by their Head of Department.

Late applications will likewise not be considered.
