10. Failure to obtain the minimum marks in any of the optional subjects shall not disqualify a candidate from further participation in the examination, but marks below the minimum in any such subject shall not be taken into account in arriving at the aggregate total mark qualifying a candidate for admission in the Interview (Part III) or in determining the total mark on which the final order of merit shall be based.

11. Part III of the examination shall only be open to those candidates who obtain an aggregate total of 700 marks (i.e. 50 p.c. of the total obtainable) in the written parts (I and II) of the examination.

12. The final order of merit shall be determined by the total marks gained in the whole examination. In the case of candidates who are awarded the same number of marks, age will be taken into account in fixing priority for appointment and seniority. However, candidates who are successful in the examination as a whole, with a pass in the paper for Accounts or Shorthand will be accorded eligibility for employment independently of their respective placing in the final order of merit. Such eligibility will be limited to the first two candidates in Accounts and the first three candidates in Shorthand.

13. The validity of the examination will expire as soon as the number of posts as stated above has been filled.

14. A candidate who is bound by an agreement of apprenticeship may be precluded from appointment unless he produces the consent in writing of his employer and of the Director of Labour and Emigration.
