COMMONWEALTH SCHOLARSHIPS IN CEYLON 1966

Under the Commonwealth Scholarship and Fellowship Plan, the Government of Ceylon offers 3 post-graduate scholarships and 3 undergraduate scholarships to students from other parts of the Commonwealth. The scholarships are intended for persons of high intellectual promise who may be expected to make a significant contribution to their own countries on their return.

The scholarships aim at providing opportunities for Commonwealth students normally resident in other countries to pursue advanced courses or undertake research in Ceylon. They are primarily available for post-graduate study or research. Applications for study at undergraduate level will be accepted on the recommendations of the Scholarship Agency of the applicant's country, if the particular fields of study are not available in his country.

Tenure

Scholarships will in general be tenable for a programme of study or research normally extending over a period of one or two academic years and leading to a University Degree or other qualification as indicated in Appendix I to the Prospectus.

Each award will be made on the understanding that it will be continued for the period of study or research for which it is granted, provided the student's progress and conduct are satisfactory. In very special circumstances, the period of an award may be extended on academic grounds.

Value of Awards

Each scholarship is intended to cover the expenses of travel, living and study during its tenure, as follows:

- (a) Transportation to Ceylon and return, as arranged by the Ceylon authorities.
 - (b) Approved tuition, laboratory and examination fees.
 - (c) Personal maintenance allowance up to a maximum of Rs. 350/- per annum.
 - (d) A grant of Rs. 250/- per annum for approved books and apparatus. (Subject to a limit of Rs. 500/- for the entire course).
 - (e) A grant of Rs. 350/- per annum for expenses of approved travel within Ceylon.
 - (f) Free medical treatment. Reimbursement of any medical expenses due to treatment from a private medical practitioner or from a private hospital will not be entertained except under exceptional or extenuating circumstances.
- (The allowances may vary in the case of undergraduate scholarships).

Eligibility

The scholarships are open to men and women who are citizens of a Commonwealth country and are normally resident in any part of the Commonwealth other than Ceylon. Applicant for post-graduate studies should possess the relevant qualifications indicated against the respective courses mentioned in Appendix I to the Prospectus. Applicants for undergraduate studies should have at least 3 G.C.E. (Advanced Level) passes or equivalent qualification.

Age Limits

Applicants should, in general, be between 17 and 35 years of age on 31st July, 1966, but in special circumstances, the upper age limit may be raised.

Placements

Every effort will be made to place selected candidates in the institutions of their choice, but if this is not possible, an institution offering opportunities to the proposed course of study will be chosen.

Health

Candidates are required to submit, when requested after selection, a medical certificate regarding their state of health and fitness to undertake studies in Ceylon.

General Conditions

(a) The scholars should reside in Ceylon throughout the period of tenure. Special permission on approved grounds must be obtained for absence from Ceylon.

(b) A scholar may not serve on the staff of his country's representative in Ceylon, and may not without special permission, undertake paid employment, during the tenure of his/her scholarship.

(c) A scholar must follow the approved course of study and abide by the rules of the University or Institution in which he/she is placed.

(d) An award may be terminated at any time for reasons of unsatisfactory conduct, for breaches of the conditions of award or for failure to make satisfactory progress.

(e) A Ceylon Scholarship under the Commonwealth Scholarship and Fellowship Plan cannot normally be held concurrently with any other scholarship award.

(f) Scholars are expected to return to their own countries at the conclusion of their studies.

(g) Married scholars may not accompany their wives to Ceylon.

(h) Candidates for scholarships must have a good knowledge of written and spoken English.

Further Information

Further information about Ceylon universities and technical institutions and about courses of study available at them may be obtained from the Commonwealth Universities Yearbook which is available for perusal at the Education Office, 141, St. Christopher Street, Valletta.

Nominations

No nominations will normally be made in respect of candidates who have been on scholarship at any time during the three years previous to the commencement of this scholarship.

Method of Application

Preliminary applications by letter will be received by the Director of Education, 141, St. Christopher Street, Valletta, not later than noon of Tuesday, 23rd November, 1965.

In addition to an application in the candidate's own handwriting a summary of qualifications, experience and other information should be tabulated on eight copies of a special form obtainable from the Education Office on request. Applications not fully completed may not be considered.

Short-List

A short list of applicants will be prepared by the Local Commonwealth Committee and only candidates appearing on the short list will be requested to attend for interview.

Late Applications

Applications received after the closing date will not be considered.
