“day” means a period running from midnight of one day to midnight of the next following day;

“experience in the trade” means one or more periods certified by the Director of Emigration, Labour and Social Welfare during which a person to whom this Schedule applies is employed as a learner with one employer or with different employers whether continuously or otherwise.

“hours of work” means the time on any day during which employees are at the disposal of the employer exclusive of the intervals allowed for meals and rest;

“learner” means a person other than an apprentice, who is over the age of fourteen years and under the age of nineteen years and who is receiving training in any calling to which this Schedule applies, and in respect of whom the employer holds a permit issued by the Director of Emigration, Labour and Social Welfare in terms of the Industrial Training Act, 1952;

“part-time employee” means an employee:

(a) who is not employed for more than 30 hours in any week; and

(b) who is not employed for more than half a day on any one day;

“period of employment” means the time in any day during which employees are at the disposal of the employer but inclusive of the intervals allowed for meals and rest;

“recognised breaks” means breaks which are customary among particular sections of the employees to which this Schedule applies;

“time-and-half and double-time” means respectively one and half times and twice the minimum time rate applicable to the employee;

“wages” means remuneration or earnings, payable in money by an employer to an employee;

“week” means a calendar week;

“weekly day of rest” means a period of twenty-four consecutive hours commencing at the time at which the worker would normally commence his turn of duty;

“whole-time employee” means an employee who is not a part-time employee.

HOURS OF WORK

2. (a) The minimum weekly remuneration for whole-time employees other than watchmen shall be related to a week of not more than forty-eight hours of work.

(b) The minimum weekly remuneration for watchmen shall be related to a week of not more than seventy-two hours of work, spread over a period of six consecutive days.

MINIMUM REMUNERATION

3. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 6 of this Schedule, the minimum weekly wage rates payable to whole-time employees shall be the following:—

(a) (i)	Watchmen whose duties are mainly performed indoors	120/-
(ii)	Watchmen whose duties are mainly performed outdoors	140/-
(b)	Other whole-time employees:
		Males	Females
(i)	aged 21 years and over... ..	130/-	97/6

(iii)	under 19 years of age including learners with the following experience in the trade:		%
	one year	35/-	26/3
	two years	55/-	41/3
	three years... ..	80/-	60/-
	four years	100/-	75/-
	five years	120/-	90/-

MINIMUM DAILY REST

4. Wholetime employees, other than watchmen, shall be allowed intervals for meals and rest of not less, in the aggregate, than one hour in every day on which the hours of work exceed five and half ($5\frac{1}{2}$) hours.

MINIMUM WEEKLY REST

5. All whole-time employees shall be allowed a weekly day of rest in every week.

MINIMUM OVERTIME RATES

6. (1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph and of paragraph 2 of this Schedule, minimum overtime rates are payable to all employees, other than watchmen, to whom this Schedule applies, as follows:—

(a) On any day other than a Sunday, or customary holiday for all time worked in excess of nine hours Time-and-a-half

Provided that, where the employer normally required the employee's attendance on 5 days only in the week, overtime at the above rate shall be payable for all time worked in excess of 10 hours on any of the five days.

(b) For all hours of work on Sundays and customary holidays ... Double-time

(c) For work in excess of forty-eight (48) hours in any week exclusive of any time paid for at overtime rates Time-and-a-half

Provided that in any week which includes a customary holiday, overtime at time-and-a-half shall be payable for work in excess of forty (40) hours, exclusive of any time paid for at overtime rates, to all employees other than watchmen.

(2) Overtime at the rate of time-and-a-half shall be payable to watchmen for all time worked in excess of 72 hours in a period of six consecutive days, and for all time worked on the seventh day.

HOLIDAYS

7. (1) After the completion of one year's continuous service, employees shall be allowed fourteen holidays with pay in every calendar year — the holidays to be taken on days to be determined in every calendar year by the employer.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph a break in employment of not more than thirty days shall not be deemed to interrupt the continuity of service.

SICK LEAVE

8. (1) After the completion of one year's continuous service, employees shall be entitled to twelve days sick leave on full pay in every calendar year less any sickness benefit to which they may be entitled under the National Insurance Act, 1956, and to a further twelve days on half pay in every calendar year:

Provided that a medical certificate certifying incapacity for work is produced to the employer, who shall be entitled, if he so wishes, to send his own medical officer to examine the employee.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph a break in employment of not more than thirty days shall not be deemed to interrupt the continuity of service.

BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

9. Whole-time employees shall be allowed two days paid leave on the occasion of the death of any of the following: the wife or husband, the mother or father (or the person who at the time was in fact acting as the mother or father of the employee) and the daughter or son.

SPECIAL LEAVE

10. Whole-time employees shall be allowed one day paid leave on the occasion of the birth of any child to the wife of the employee.

MINIMUM REMUNERATION OF PART-TIME EMPLOYEES

11. The minimum remuneration payable to part-time employees irrespective of age shall be 3s. per hour in the case of males and 2s. 3d. per hour in the case of females.

WAITING TIME

IT IS hereby notified that by Writ of Summons No. 83 of the year 1965, filed in Her Majesty's Civil Court, First Hall, Carmela the wife of Giuseppe Falzon assisted by him prayed for the correction of:

1) The Act of Death of Pawla Micallef née Busuttil bearing progressive number 257 of the year 1958 in the sense that in the column under the heading "Name and Surname" the name "Mary" be deleted and the name "Pawla" be substituted therefor; and

2) The Act of the Birth of Pawla Busuttil, bearing progressive number 5070 of the year 1888, in the sense that in the column under the heading "Name and Surname of the father and whether living or dead" the surname "Vella" be deleted and the surname "Bugeja" be substituted therefor.

Wherefore any interested person wishing to oppose the demand is hereby called upon to file a Minute in the Registry of these Courts, within fifteen days from the date of publication hereof in the Government Gazette stating his objections thereto.

All persons filing the aforesaid Minute within the time stated will be served with a copy of the writ of summons notifying them of the date fixed for the hearing of the case.

Registry of Her Majesty's Superior Courts, this 30th day of January, 1965.

S. SANT'ANGELO,
Dep. Registrar.
