SCHEDULE

Interpretation

1. In this schedule, unless the context otherwise requires:—
“customary holidays” means:

The Feast of the Circumcision	1st January
The Feast of the Epiphany	6th January
The Feast of St Paul's Shipwreck	10th February
The Feast of St Joseph	19th March
Good Friday	—
Ascension Day	—
The Feast of St Joseph the Worker	1st May
The Feast of Corpus Christi	—
The Feast of St Peter and St Paul	29th June
The Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin	15th August
National Day	8th September
All Saints Day	1st November
The Feast of the Immaculate Conception	8th December
Christmas Day	25th December

“day” means a period running from midnight of one day to midnight of the next day;

“hours of work” means the time on any day during which employees are at the disposal of the employer, exclusive of the intervals allowed for meals and rest;

"recognised breaks" means breaks which are customary among particular sections of the employees to which this section applies;

"time and a half" and "double time" mean respectively:—

(a) in the case of a time employee, one and half times and twice the minimum rate applicable to the employee;

(b) in the case of an employee on piece-work:

(i) the piece rates applicable to the employee, and in addition,

(ii) a time rate equal to one half or, as the case may be the whole of the minimum time rate which would have been applicable to the employee if he were a time employee;

"wages" means remuneration or earnings, payable in money by an employer to an employee;

"week" means a calendar week;

"weekly day of rest" means a period of twenty four consecutive hours commencing at the time at which the worker would normally commence his turn of duty;

"normal hourly wage" means the weekly wage as laid down in this Schedule, divided by forty eight.

Hours of work

2. (1) The minimum weekly remuneration for time employees other than watchmen shall be related to a week of not more than forty eight hours of work exclusive of overtime and of recognised breaks for meal times and rest:

Provided that no work is done on Saturday after mid-day.

(2) The minimum weekly remuneration for watchmen shall be related to a week of not more than seventy-two hours of work exclusive of overtime.

Minimum Remuneration

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 7 of this Schedule, the minimum weekly wage rates payable to time employees shall be the following:—

(a) (i)	Watchmen whose duties are mainly performed indoors ...	140/-
(ii)	Watchmen whose duties are mainly performed out of doors	160/-
(b)	Other time employees:
		Males	Females
(i)	aged 19 years and over	140/-	105/-
(ii)	aged 18 years and over	97/-	73/-
(iii)	aged 17 years and over	78/-	63/-
(iv)	under 17 years	60/-	48/-

(2) The rates of employees shall be subject to a proportionate reduction when the number of hours worked is less than seventy-two in the case of watchmen and forty-eight in the case of all other employees.

Provided that, without prejudice to the provisions of paragraph 11 (e) of this schedule, an employee shall be entitled to the full minimum weekly remuneration due to him if:—

(i) he works for not less than thirty two hours in any one week, and

(ii) he does not work the entire period of forty eight hours in that same week for some reason other than that of leaving work of his own accord.

Piece Work Employees

4. In the case of employees employed on piece work the minimum piece rates of wages shall be such that no employee will earn when employed on such work, less than the appropriate time rate 'pro rata' specified in paragraph 3 of this Schedule.

Minimum Daily Rest

5. Employees other than watchmen shall be allowed intervals of not less in the aggregate, than one hour for meals and rest in any day on which the hours of work exceed five hours.

Minimum Weekly Rest

6. All employees shall be allowed a weekly day of rest in every week.

Minimum Overtime Rates

7. Subject to the provisions of this paragraph and of paragraph 1 of this Schedule, minimum overtime rates shall be paid to all employees, other than watchmen, to whom this schedule applies, as follows:—

(1) (a) On any day other than a Saturday, Sunday, or customary holiday for all time worked in excess of eight and three fourths hours ... Time and a half.

(b) On any Saturday, for all time worked after mid-day ... Time and a half.

(c) For all hours of work on a Sunday ... Double Time.

(d) For all hours of work on a customary holiday, in addition to a normal hourly wage ... Double time.

(e) The provisions of this paragraph apply to an employee on piece-work, only when he is required to work overtime by his employer.

(2) Overtime at the rate of time and a half shall be payable to watchmen for all time worked in excess of seventy two hours in a period of six consecutive days, and for all time worked on the seventh day.

Holidays

8. (1) After the completion of one year's continuous service, an employee shall in every calendar year be entitled to all the customary holidays and in addition to six days vacation leave with pay to be taken on days to be mutually agreed upon between the employer and the employee.

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph, a break in employment of not more than thirty days shall not interrupt the continuity of service.

Sick Leave

9. (1) After the completion of one year's continuous service, employees shall be entitled on a 'pro rata' basis to twelve days sick leave on full pay in every calendar year less any sickness benefit to which they may be entitled under the National Insurance Act, 1956, and to a further twelve days on half pay in every calendar year, less half of any such sickness benefit:

Provided that a medical certificate certifying incapacity for work covering the period of absence is produced to the employer, who shall be entitled, if he so wishes, to send his own medical officer to examine the employee.

(2) For the purpose of this paragraph, a break in employment of not more than thirty days shall not interrupt the continuity of service.

Bereavement Leave

10. Whole-time employees shall be allowed two days paid leave on the occasion of the death of any of the following relations: the wife or husband, the mother or father (or the person who at the time was in fact acting as the mother or father of the employee) and the son or daughter.

Waiting Time

11. An employee is entitled to the payment of the minimum remuneration applicable to him for all time during which he is present on the premises of his employer or in any other place in connection with his employment unless he is present thereon in any of the following circumstances:—

- (a) without the employer's consent, express or implied;
- (b) for some purpose unconnected with his work and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform;
- (c) by reason only of the fact that he is resident thereon;
- (d) during normal meal times in a room or place in which no work is being done, and he is not waiting for work to be given to him to perform;
- (e) in the case of stoppage of work through inclement weather, such remuneration will only be due if the period of stoppage throughout the day exceeds, in the aggregate, two hours.

Cancellation of Construction Wages Council Wage Regulation Order, 1965

(Legal Notice No. 20 of 1965)

The Construction Wages Council Regulation Order, 1965, shall be cancelled, without prejudice, however, to any rights and liabilities existing thereunder on the date of commencement of this Order.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the order but is intended to indicate its applicability)

The above order will apply to all employees engaged on work connected with building and civil engineering construction and also employees engaged in connection with the manufacture of pre-cast concrete, masonry and concrete units, the manufacture and laying of cement tiles and in respect of all employees engaged in marble works.

The rates of wages set out in the above Schedule are minimum rates and do not prevent the payment of higher rates.
