TRADE UNIONS AND TRADE DISPUTES ORDINANCE
ANNUAL REPORT 1973-74

Sir,

I have the honour to submit the annual report in terms of Section 18 of the Trade Unions and Trade Disputes Ordinance (Ordinance No. IV of 1945) for the period 1st July 1973 to 30th June 1974.

2. There were 58 Trade Unions on the Register at the beginning of this period. Three unions, The Malta Hairdressers Union (No. 20), the Poultry Stock Association (No. 157) and the Association of Clerical Employees (No. 161), which between them had a membership of 143 were cancelled from the Register after having failed to comply with Section 11 of the Ordinance. The Amalgamated Engineering Union (No. 11) with a membership of 9, was also cancelled from the Register at its own request following its dissolution.

3. The following 5 new trade unions, which between them had a membership of 225 were registered:—

| | | | | | |
|------|--|-----|-----|-----|-----------|
| i) | University Technicians Association | ... | ... | ... | (No. 167) |
| ii) | Rent-a-Car Association | ... | ... | ... | (No. 168) |
| iii) | Central Bank Executives Union | ... | ... | ... | (No. 169) |
| iv) | Malta Association of Barclays Management | ... | ... | ... | (No. 170) |
| v) | The Civil Service Pensioners Alliance | | | | |
| | — Malta G.C. Branch | ... | ... | ... | (No. 172) |

The Malta Hairdressers Union which had been cancelled during this period was subsequently re-registered (No. 171) with a membership of 66.

4. On 30th June 1974 i.e. the last day of the period under review there were 60 Trade Unions on the Register. These were made up of 33 Unions of employees, 18 Unions of employers and 9 Unions of employers and employees combined.

5. Six unions which had failed to send their annual return and persisted even after a letter of warning, were served with Notice of Cancellation in accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance. Cancellation will take effect two months from the date of issue of the said notice if the requirements of law will not have been complied with by then.

6. On the 7th July 1973 the Malta Government Clerical Union changed its name to Malta Government Employees Union.

7. The membership strength of each group, as compared with that of my previous report was as follows:

| | 1972/1973 | 1973/1974 |
|---|-----------|-----------|
| i) Unions of Employees | 38,170 | 36,175 |
| ii) Unions of Employers | 2,757 | 2,838 |
| iii) Combination of Employers and Employees | 1,461 | 1,415 |
| | *42,388 | 40,428 |

The Hon. Minister of Labour, Employment and Welfare,
Palazzo Ferreria,
Kingsway,
VALLETTA.

* Includes figures collected after the submission of the report for 1972/73.

8. The above table shows a decrease in union membership of 1960. It is worth mentioning that the six unions which had failed to send their annual returns had a total membership of 2858 for 1972/1973.

9. During the period under review several unions effected changes in their regulations. All such changes were vetted for legality before they were registered according to law. Supervision was also maintained on the proper keeping of records by the unions, and in this respect the records of the Malta Union of Teachers, the Lotto Receivers Union, the Society of Civil Servants, Malta (Locally Entered Officers Branch) and the Secondary Schools Teachers Association, were inspected in terms of Section 9 (a) of the Ordinance. Wherever any discrepancy was noted steps were taken with the union concerned to rectify such discrepancy.

10. The right of inspection was also utilized on a number of occasions to ascertain the strength of unions where doubts raised in this respect by employers could have led to a trade dispute. In all such occasions, the information obtained was instrumental in providing the basis for agreement and averting trade disputes.

11. The Appendix hereto contains details of Trade Unions and their membership as appearing on the Register on the 30th June 1974.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant,

A. FARRUGIA
Registrar of Trade Unions
