Registration of Holiday Premises

The Ministry of Tourism notifies owners or operators of holiday premises that they should apply for the necessary licence as required by law for 1980.

This applies also to those premises which have been previously registered.

Those who have already applied and who fail to pay the relative amount they are due to pay within the time fixed in the notice sent to them, may lose the right to the issue of a licence.

The Ministry once again warns that whosoever is found to be making use of such holiday premises without the necessary licence will be prosecuted and fined £M1,000 (one thousand pounds).

The Ministry would like to make it clear that every licence issued by the Hotels and Catering Establishments Board does not entitle the holder to any benefit, privilege or exemption provided by any other law, which does not fall under the Ministry of Tourism.
