Dear friends,

We would like to welcome all the new members who joined the MCI during our October concert and to thank the other members for their continued support.

Our November concert promises to be another “young” night. The University of Malta Junior College Orchestra, made up of over 40 musicians will be presenting a programme of Popular Classics. A novelty for the MCI is the Exhibition of paintings being presented by some of the musicians themselves, who are also Art students at the Junior College. The orchestra is in the hands of its Musical Director, Mro. Manoel Pirotta, under whose baton it will be celebrating its 15th Anniversary in 2013.

We hope to see you all on Sunday 4th November and that many more new friends will be joining our Institute. We remind all artists who are interested in exhibiting during our concerts to contact us in good time to enable us to make arrangements. The MCI still strives to keep up its motto ‘We Support The Arts’.

Meet The Artists

Mro. Manoel Pirotta graduated from the Conservatoire National Supérieur de Musique de Lyon (1994) and lectures the Matsec music programme. The Research & Advisory Board of the IBC Cambridge nominated him International Musician of the year for his outstanding musical achievements (2003). He was awarded the Grand Prix des Arts for music composition and conducting at the 8th. Malta International Art Biennale 2007. Pirotta conducted the Catholic Institute Youth Orchestra (1987-9), the Maltese Youth Orchestra (1994-6), and The Euro Academy Youth Orchestra (2002-8). He is also musical director of the College Orchestra since 1998. His incidental music – Antony and Cleopatra won him an entry in the Shakespeare Music Catalogue issued by Victoria College, Canada. It was revised and played by the orchestra Città di Ravenna (2005). His La Lyonnaise features in Murray MacLachlan’s CD Piano Music from Malta. Other works are also included in piano anthologies, among which, Kinder Garden and A Musical Tribute to Mozart from Malta. He is also musical director of St. Julians Band A.D. 1927 since 2008.

The University of Malta Junior College Orchestra is made up of some 45 budding musicians hailing from the college and with well over 200 concerts to its credit! Important venues abroad include Teatro L. Mercantini (2001) and the Fieralingue (2005). In 2004 and 2005, the students attended masterclasses at Hamburger Konservatorium and the Musikschule Rissen.

The orchestra also gave a series of instrumental and vocal concerts in Heidelberg at Eichersheim Castle Gardens Festival and vocational schools of Wiesloch and Schwetzingen (2007). In 2008 the orchestra gave a Concerto vocale e strumentale di musica sacra e classica at Chiesa di San Nicola (PISA) and Chiesa di Sta. Ubaldesca (CALCINAIA) as part of a cultural exchange between the Istituto Magistrale Statale "G. Carducci" (Liceo Pedagogico Linguistico e Scienze Sociali Sperimentale), and the University Junior College Music Department. In November of the same year it also gave another two concerts, one at the Teatro del Convitto del Liceo Scientifico (ASSISI) and the other at the Teatro Comunale 'Ettore Thesoriere' (CANNARA). In July 2010 the orchestra revisited Heidelberg and gave two concerts in Louise-Otto-Peters-Schule (Wiesloch) and Max-Weber-Schule (Sinsheim). In March 2011 they visited Spain on an exchange visit with the Gran Asociacion Colegio of Valencia where they also gave performances which included works by Maltese composers Camilleri and Pirota. In 2012, another cultural exchange took place, this time with the Istituto Tecnico 'Luca Pacioli' of CREMA in the Province of Cremona in the Italian Region of Lombardy where the orchestra performed in the chiesetta to a packed house of opera lovers. While in Italy, they also visited the Museo Stradivariano (Cremona), the Museo La Scala (Milan), and were invited over to a performance of Aida at La Scala of Milan which was under the musical direction of Omer Meir Wellber. Since 2008, nine most promising members from the orchestra also take part in the annual festival of the Printemps des Lycéens et des Apprentis organized by the Région Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur in the south of France.

Some of the more important recent performances held in Malta and Gozo include: The Manoel Theatre (Notte Bianca 2012), Palazzo Castellania - Ministry for Health, the Elderly and Community Care (Valletta), MCI Monday Ovarions (Le Meridien St. Julians Hotel and Spa), the annual Christmas Concert at the Dolmen Hotel (Qawra) World Children's Day Festival, Inauguration of St. George's Square (Valletta), Gozo International Celebration (GIC) (Qala - Gozo), Milied Flimkien (St. John's co-Cathedral), Christmas on Campus (University Chapel), the annual Soirée (Junior College Auditorium), Parent's Meeting (Sir Temi Zammit Hall - Tal-Qroqq), The Point Shopping Mall (Tigné), Learning Expo (Hilton Malta - Portomaso), MFCC - Intrapriża Malta (Ta' Qali), University Discovery Week at the University Campus, Skopri l-Università fi Tliet Ibliet (Birgu, Bormla and Isla), and Christ the Saviour Church of Għasri - the smallest village in Gozo!

The University of Malta Junior College is planning to celebrate its 15th. anniversary under the baton of Mro. Manoel Pirota in 2013.
