AN ART DISPLAY

BY

ANTHONY LUCIAN CAUCHI

MANOEL THEATRE – VALLETTA

MONDAY 1ST. – SATURDAY 13TH. OCTOBER, 2001

In collaboration with the patronage of the Manoel Theatre and kind permission of the Artistic Director of Manoel Theatre, ANTHONY LUCIAN CAUCHI is displaying a number of acrylics and oils.

This is a collection of art works, executed during these last ten years. Works like “Fawwara Church”, and “Lamp Post”, are oils and acrylics paintings, which have been completed in the early nineties. “San Gwann Shack” and “Hill Top” are acrylic works painted very recently.

The different styles represented the different moods of the artist, and his concept of the subject at that time. Some works, such as “Dream City” (acrylics), are surrealistic while others like “Disco Gals” and “Censorship” (acrylics) are painted sculptures. “Pauline” is an oil portrait which won the artist a Bronze Medal at Lugano, in Italy, during the International Postal Union Art Competition.

It is hoped that this art display will start an artistic relationship between the artist and the Manoel Theatre.
