Directors Note

Good Evening and welcome to the MADC's presentation of "Perfect Wedding" by Robin Hawdon.

I was initially drawn to the play's title as I was at the time, preparing for my own wedding and inevitably the title struck a chord. Once I read the play for the first time, I was immediately drawn to it not only for its great comic moments but also for the very real and touching moments, which it also has. This is not exactly common to this genre of play. Needless to say I would not have been able to bring this play to fruition without the help of the MADC and all the cast and crew of this production. Special thanks must go to the cast, who all worked extremely hard to get this play to the levels that you will see before you tonight. The art of good comedy is to make it look all so easy, but it takes a lot of hard work and dedication to do so. We were a great group and it was a pleasure and a privilege working with each and every one. I cannot forget the backstage crew, those unsung hero's, without whom no theatrical production could ever be performed. Once again they worked tirelessly and they have my gratitude and one hopes your appreciation for their fine work. A special mention must go to Lino Mallia and Harry Borg whose expertise, dedication and attention to detail where invaluable.

Finally I must thank my lovely wife Greta for her great patience and understanding with my obsession with the theatre and for her not inconsiderable help in this and all my other productions. I wish you all a very enjoyable evening.

Regards
Steve Casaletto
