Moving Forward Together: Continuing to Learn and Connect Across SIEC-ISBE

Dear SIEC-ISBE members and friends,

Welcome to this edition of our newsletter.

As we look back on the past months, we do so with gratitude. Last July, we had the pleasure of meeting in Amsterdam for another inspiring SIEC-ISBE international conference. It was a valuable opportunity to reconnect, exchange ideas, and strengthen our shared commitment to business education. As SIEC-ISBE members, we extend our sincere thanks to Mr Theo Roos for coordinating the Amsterdam conference and for his dedication to making it such a meaningful experience.

We now look forward with enthusiasm to our next international conference tentatively in Puerto Rico. We are are deeply grateful to these committed members, who aim to provide a nourishing and enriching experience for us all.

As we move into the coming year, much is to be anticipated. We look forward to the international conference, our online professional development sessions, and the spring research symposium featuring emerging researchers. These initiatives remind us of the strength of our international community and of the many opportunities we have to continue learning from one another.

Members who would like to conduct an online professional development session during the coming months are warmly invited to contact the International President or the General Secretary. These contributions are an important way to share expertise and strengthen professional exchange across our Society.

I warmly encourage all members to participate actively in these opportunities. Whether through attending, presenting, sharing practice, or supporting colleagues, each contribution helps to sustain the spirit and mission of SIEC-ISBE.

Thank you for your continued commitment to our Society and to advancing business education internationally. We look forward to another year of learning, collaboration and friendship.

Warm regards,

Dr Emanuel Mizzi
International President
