

Bachelor of Science in Business and Information Technology – 2015

- The impact of technology on Human Resource Management within the Maltese government, Agius Jean-Pierre, Zammit Daniela, 2015.
- An investigation in using Social Media combined with tuition in Maltese Higher Secondary State Schools, Aquilina Joseph Charles, Mallia Sergio, 2015.
- Proof of concept: An RFID Patient Tracking Architecture at Mater Dei Hospital, Malta, Bonnici Daniel, 2015.
- An investigation into the drivers and inhibitors of Cloud Adoption in Public Administration, Buttigieg Emanuel, Caruana Joshua, 2015.
- Design of a Remote Patient Monitoring system for Heart Disease Patients, Calleja Matthew, 2015.
- A Mobile Augmented Reality Approach using Social Media assisted by a Recommender System: A Prototype implementation in Tourism, Cassar Andre, Spiteri Geoffrey, 2015.
- An Investigation into Cloud Based Service Delivery Models at University of Malta, Cassar Andrea, Chetcuti Janelle, 2015.
- The effectiveness of form factor Adapt and Platform Agnostic services for increased (future) inclusion/participation and reach for e-government service delivery, Magro Juanita, Spiteri Roslianne, 2015.
- Improving data collection methodologies of Basketball players and exploring data analysis opportunities, Mifsud Andrea, 2015.
- Utilising Big Data to improve Malta's Workforce, Pace Matthias, 2015.
- Trust in online retailers - the case of sporting goods, Spiteri David, 2015.
- An investigation of the influences determining the adoption of cloud based approaches within the health sector, Tonna Stephen, 2015.