Did you know?

You can set up a Google Scholar Profile to keep track of your publications and to see who is citing them.

Apart from citation metrics which include prestigious indicators such as h-index and i10-index, it will ensure that your name and your works will be included in Google Scholar search results.

Furthermore, all publications uploaded in OAR@UoM will be automatically retrieved and added to your profile.

Setting up a Google Scholar Profile is easy, free-of-charge and goes a long way in promoting yourself in the academic community worldwide.
