ORWELL 1984 CONFERENCE

On Thursday 23 and Friday 24 February, The University of Malta organised a Conference to discuss the problems and challenges facing Man, the State and Society in modern contemporary society.

Three main themes were discussed:

1. Policies and Strategies
2. Dependence and Freedom
3. Knowledge and Conscience.

Academics, intellectuals, research-workers, students and leading figures from the world of science and industry discussed fundamental human problems relating to the role of the individual when confronted by the progress of modern technology. The following were the papers delivered and discussed:

'Gene Control on Animal Farm' – Professor Alfred Cuschieri.

Man the Machine – Dr. Victor Ferrito.

The Road to 1984: Orwell's Literary Development – Dr. Peter Vassallo.

Technology-Transfer Revolution – Mr. Edward Scerri.

The Curbing of Creativity and Self-Censorship – Mrs. Rose Lapira.

Development and Social Control in Southern Europe – Dr. Alfred Sant.

Spirituality and Commitment – Ms. Marlene Saliba.

Communication, Mass Media and Freedom – Ms. Paola Vietri.

'War is Peace' – Policies and Strategies – Dr. Nazzareno Azzopardi.

Communication and Culture – Ms. Anna Spiteri.

Stress, the 1984 Epidemic – Rev. Dr. Alfred Darmanin.

Control of the Mind – Dr. Abraham Galea.

Mankind, as the Subject of Human Rights and Future Generations – Professor Peter Serracino-Inglott.

Manufacturing Industry at the Crossroads – Mr. George Peplow.

Myths and Realities of Drug Treatment – Dr. Anthony Serracino-Inglott.

Science and Power – Dr. Edward Mallia.

Privacy in the Computer Age – Dr. Anton Buhagiar.

The Post-Industrial Society: Problems and Prospects – Dr. Edward Zammit.

1984: The Way I See It – Dr. Godfrey Wettinger.

There were also discussion panels relating to: The Structure of Society, Modern War Aims, The Re-Writing of History, and The Uses of Science.

Immediately following the Conference, summaries of papers and workshop discussions and recommendations were sent to the Council of Europe and the European Foundation for Science, Arts and Culture which are processing reactions and contributions from universities throughout Europe. The Proceedings of this Conference will be published later this year.

The Organising Committee for this Conference was composed of:

Dr. Daniel Massa (Chairman), Dr. Anton Buhagiar,
 Dr. Dominic Fenech, Dr. Joe Friggieri,
 Mr. Anthony Schembri, Dr. Edward Zammit.

The Chairman of the Conference represented The University of Malta at the Orwell 1984 Colloquium, which was held early in April in Strasbourg under the aegis of the Council of Europe.
