INSTALLATION OF PROFESSOR P. SERRACINO INGLOTT AS RECTOR OF THE UNIVERSITY

OPENING DAY CEREMONY – ACADEMIC YEAR 1991/92

The Opening Day Ceremony of the academic year 1991/92, which was held at the Main Quadrangle on Tuesday, 1st October, 1991, saw another record intake of nearly 1,200 new students.

On this occasion, the new Rector, Rev. Professor Peter Serracino Inglott was formally installed in a ceremony, which the University has not witnessed since 1964.

In his address, the Chancellor of the University, Judge Maurice Caruana Curran said that this was the first time that the University had a Rector elected by its own Council as provided for in the Education Act of 1988, and this was a further important step for the University's autonomy.

The Chancellor stated that the University was fortunate to have for its Rector "a man of vision" at such an important stage of its development when the student population has reached a new peak of 3,500 including a number of foreign students.

The Chancellor then referred to the academic career of Professor Serracino Inglott (popularly known as "Father Peter") at the Universities of Malta, Oxford (where he was Rhodes scholar), at the "Cattolica", Milan, as well as at the "Institute Catholique", Paris, where he later served as Visiting Professor in Philosophy of Law at the Sorbonne. Moreover, the Rector is internationally known for his interest in the artistic, scientific and technological fields.

Moreover the Chancellor stressed the human qualities of the new Rector and described him as a "humble man".

The Rector's reply took the form of a poetic prayer in Maltese:

Nirringrazzja lill-Kanċillier u lilkom ilkoll.
Imma f'dan il-waqt xejn ma nhoss li jixraq li ngħid hlief li nitlob lill-Mulej, sabiex:

ahna l-imxennqin għaċ-ċertezza nagħharfu nhabbtu bwieb il-ghomja halli minn għajnejhom nirċievu f'għajnejna merżuq dawl;

ahna l-imlebilbin għal-libertà nagħharfu nfittxu fil-pjazez liz-zopop halli minghandhom nitharrgu f'zifna ġdida;

ahna bil-ghatx ta' l-intelligenza nagħharfu nittawlu f'nieqet it-tarbija halli minn tbissimitha nisiltu lezzjoni t'għerf;

ahna herqana għall-verità
nagħharfu nistaqsu lill-imbikkem halli minghandu nisimghu ghanjet eghgubijiet il-holqien;

Hekk il-kategoriji tal-filosofija
jgħaddu mill-gharbiel tal-misteru tas-Salib.

AMEN.

The Installation Ceremony was followed by the celebration of Holy Mass by the Chaplain, Rev Paul Pace S.J. with a liturgical drama produced by students from the Theatre and Liturgy Course.

The students were also addressed by the President of the Kunsill ta' l-Istudenti Universitarji (KSU), Mr John Grech.

A week's programme of activities was drawn up especially for freshmen. This included a series of four talks organized by the University Counselling Services on Study Skills such as listening, note-taking, memory and essay-writing. The University Librarian, Dr Paul Xuereb, provided students with information concerning the use of the Library, while a programme of Sports activities was organized by Mr Louis Borg, Sports Director at the Faculty of Education. The Pro-Rector, Professor Roger Ellul Micallef and Rev Dr Saviour Chircop made a presentation on the "History of the University—Its role today".

At the end of the week's activities, there was a meeting for first year students with the Rector and Senior University Officials with the participation of the Minister of Education and the Interior, Dr Ugo Mifsud Bonnici.

GRADUATION CEREMONY

On Friday, 22nd November, 1991, the Rector, Rev. Professor Peter Serracino Inglott conferred a record number of five hundred and sixty-four (564) degrees, sixty-three (63) diplomas and twenty-three (23) certificates at a Graduation Ceremony held at the Temi Zammit Hall of the University.

The Ceremony, which had to be divided into three parts, was presided by the Chancellor of the University, Judge Maurice Caruana Curran. Among the distinguished persons present were the Hon. Acting Prime Minister, Professor Guido DeMarco and the Hon. Minister of Education and the Interior, Dr Ugo Mifsud Bonnici. His Grace the Metropolitan Archbishop Mgr Joseph Mercieca celebrated Holy Mass in the Hall.

Orations were delivered by Professor Oliver Friggieri, Dr Mary Darmanin and the Pro-Rector, Professor Roger Ellul Micallef. Mr John Grech, President of the Kunsill ta' l-Istudanti Universitarji (KSU) and one of the graduates, made the traditional student address. The following degrees were conferred:

CHANCELLOR'S AWARD

On Thursday, 10th October, 1991, the Chancellor, Judge Maurice Caruana Curran announced at a press conference that this year's recipient of the Chancellor's Award is Miss Anna Maria Laurenti, B.A.(Hons.), who will be proceeding to Notre Dame University, Illinois, U.S.A. to follow a Master's Degree in Counselling Psychology.

The Chancellor's Award was set up in 1983 following the presentation to the University of a substantial sum of money. The Donor, who has remained anonymous, stipulated that the funds be used by the Chancellor for the provision of scholarships for Maltese men and women from time to time and at the Chancellor's discretion.

Since the foundation of the Chancellor's Award, the following scholarships have been awarded:
Mr. Evarist Bartolo to study for the M.Ed. at the Centre of Journalism Studies, University College, Cardiff;
Mr. Godfrey Vella, to study for the M.Sc. in Computer Science at Birbeck College, University of London;
Ms Mary Anne Agius to study for the Master's Degree in Counselling Psychology at the Graduate School of Education, University of New Jersey, Rutgers;
Mr. Joseph Muscat to study for the B.A. Degree in Mathematics at Balliol College, Oxford.

GENERAL

Presentation of Books

In December, the Australian High Commissioner, Mr John L. Mahoney, presented a number of books to the University Library. The books, ranging from novels to classics were a donation from the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade in Australia. The presentation ceremony was attended by the Chancellor, Judge Maurice Caruana Curran, the Rector, Rev. Professor Peter Serracino Inglott, the Librarian, Dr Paul Xuereb and the Deputy Librarian, Mr Anthony Mangion.

Visit by Experts in Special Education

In October, Mr Ingvar Sandling, Chairman of the Malmo School of Education of the University of Lund and Mr Leif Roslund, Director of Special Education of Angelholm, Malmohus, Sweden visited Malta as part of an exchange programme.

Mr Sandling, who is on his second visit to Malta, has worked in the field of special education for many years. He has lectured on the subject in the United States and has had research material published in several international journals.

Mr Roslund has had over thirty years' practical experience in special education, both as a teacher and as an administrator. At present he is an advisor on special education for the Malmohus area in southern Sweden.

Both experts lectured to local students following the course leading to a Diploma of Education for Children with Special Needs and participated as speakers in the international conference, organized by the Down's Children Association in collaboration with the Faculty of Education on the theme 'Education for Social Integration'.

Public Lectures

On Tuesday, 15th October, 1991, Professor Peter Vassallo, M.A.(Oxon.), D.Phil.(Oxon.) delivered a public lecture on "The English Romantic Poets and Rome" at the Library of the Foundation for International Studies. This lecture was organized by the Institute for Anglo-Italian Studies of the University of Malta and the British Culture Association.

On Friday, 25th October, 1991, Professor Daniel Massa M.A., Ph.D.(Edin.) delivered a lecture in the Karmen Mikallef Buhaġar Foundation Series on "Kurrenti Kuntrarji f' 'Il-Jien u Lilhinn Minnu'" in the Pietru Pawl Saydon Hall.

The Trusteeship of the Karmen Mikallef Buhaġar Fund was established for the purpose of inviting specialised scholars to deliver a lecture on Dun Karm, the Maltese National Poet.

In December, Dr J.L. Backès, from the University of Tours, 'Francois Rabelais' gave a series of lectures on the French seventeenth century author, Jean de la Fontaine.

Lectures in Theatre Animation

In November, Professor L. Perissinotto, who lectures at the Universities of Bologna, Torino and Venezia, was invited to Malta through the Mediterranean Institute Theatre Programme to participate in the Theatre Studies Course at the Faculty of Arts.

Apart from her University teaching, Professor Perissinotto works extensively at creating theatre for children in schools and at using dramatic situations for animation. She is an actress and a dramaturg in her own right and has taken her drama skills to socially deprived areas, old people's homes and hospitals and created performances in prisons, mental asylums and rehabilitation communities.

Jazz Concert on Campus

On Tuesday, 26th November, 1991, a lunchtime concert, with the participation of three of Malta's leading Jazz musicians was held at the Temi Zammit Hall. Charles (City) Gatt, Sammy Murgo and Ronnie Caruana were joined at the piano by the well-known composer Professor Charles Camilleri, who is the Co-ordinator of the Music Studies Programme at the University.
