Abridged Prescribing Information:

PRECAUTIONS:

Patients that receive Augmentin ES should be closely monitored for the development of allergy.

CONTRAINDICATIONS:

Augmentin ES is contraindicated in patients with a known allergy to the beta-lactam class of antibiotics.

INDICATIONS:

Augmentin ES is indicated for the treatment of community-acquired respiratory infections in adults.

POSOLGY:

For oral administration. The recommended dosage of Augmentin ES is 2.72mg of aspartame (E951) per ml (source of phenylalanine). Contains maltodextrin (glucose).

TRADE NAMES:

Augmentin ES.

INDICATIONS:

Augmentin ES is indicated for the treatment of community-acquired respiratory infections in adults.

PHARMACEUTICAL FORM:

Augmentin ES contains amoxicillin (as trihydrate) and potassium clavulanate.

TRADE NAMES:

Augmentin ES.

CONTRAINDICATIONS:

Augmentin ES is contraindicated in patients with a known allergy to the beta-lactam class of antibiotics.

INDICATIONS:

Augmentin ES is indicated for the treatment of community-acquired respiratory infections in adults.

POSOLGY:

For oral administration. The recommended dosage of Augmentin ES is 2.72mg of aspartame (E951) per ml (source of phenylalanine). Contains maltodextrin (glucose).

TRADE NAMES:

Augmentin ES.

CONTRAINDICATIONS:

Augmentin ES is contraindicated in patients with a known allergy to the beta-lactam class of antibiotics.

INDICATIONS:

Augmentin ES is indicated for the treatment of community-acquired respiratory infections in adults.

POSOLGY:

For oral administration. The recommended dosage of Augmentin ES is 2.72mg of aspartame (E951) per ml (source of phenylalanine). Contains maltodextrin (glucose).

TRADE NAMES:

Augmentin ES.

REFERENCES:

1. Sheikh, S. & Sasieni, P. When should the errors in the UK’s breast screening programme have been spotted? Lancet 2018; pii: S0140-6736(18)31137-1.