International Open Access Week 2018

22-28 October 2018 was an International Open Access Week. OpenAIRE and FOSTER have organised a series of webinars and tutorials that are now available online!

The subjects of the webinars were as follows:

- Open Access, Open Data, Open Science: what you need to know and what are the policies in Horizon 2020?
- Everything you need to know about FAIR data, data repositories, text and data mining and research data management.
- Legal and ethical considerations for sharing research data.
- Open Science Policies: what you need to know, how to advise on good policy making, and information/trends on policies in Europe.
- OpenAIRE and FOSTER project: services and activities.

All slides and tutorials can be accessed via the OpenAIRE's Open Access Week 2018 webpage
