SYNOPSIS OF PLAY

Act I. A band of brigands under their leader, Baldasarre, rob and plunder at will. The governor of the country is about to be replaced for having failed to suppress these outlaws. But Baldasarre has tired of the life he leads and the brigands are preparing to leave. Among them is a girl, Teresa. She cooks and sews for them and is secretly in love with their leader. Baldasarre sends her on in advance to make her escape alone for the soldiers have surrounded their hideout and it would be easier for her to get through on her own. News is soon brought that she has been captured and is to be held as hostage. So the brigands plan to capture the newly-appointed governor and his aides who are on their way to the city and to go to the city impersonating them.

Act II. They are received in the city without suspicion and immediately after the reception they contact Teresa and plan the escape. Baldasarre, however, is infatuated by the pretty daughter of the old governor and decides against leaving too soon. Teresa grows madly jealous and threatens to disclose their identity. Baldasarre is adamant. So, Teresa reveals everything and their arrest follows.

Act III. They are imprisoned on Devil's Island. Teresa though free has followed them there for she is still in love with Baldasarre. The officer in charge of the prison plans to reconcile the lovers and set everyone free. He is to escape too. His plans succeed and their adventures end.
