Are you currently conducting COVID-19 related research?

Would you like to promote it or help others get access to it?

OpenAIRE is currently seeking experts with domain-specific expertise who can aid in curating the COVID-19 related research. Contributions can be made in the Coronavirus Disease Research Community - COVID-19 on Zenodo and in the OpenAIRE COVID-19 Gateway. If you are interested, you can add your research on the spreadsheet available via this link.

OpenAIRE is also in the process of collecting resources for the OpenAIRE COVID-19 Gateway. If you are interested, you can add them to a spreadsheet available from this link.

Several other initiatives have been initiated and supported by the European Commission to support the fight against the coronavirus. These include:

1. European Life Science Research Infrastructures
2. EMBL COVID-19 Data Platform
3. RIs against COVID-19
4. ELIXIR
5. EMBL COVID-19 Data Platform
6. BIP! Finder for COVID-19
