

NEWS AND VIEWS

The Society extends its congratulations to Dr. J.M. Ganado B.A., LL.D., its first President, who has recently been awarded a Ph.D. degree by London University. Dr. J.M. Ganado whom the Society has every reason to be proud has taken his duties as University lecturer in Roman Law.

* * * *

The Society also congratulates Dr. E. Busuttil B.A., LL.I B.A. (Hons.) one of its foundation members who has been awarded a B.Litt. degree by Oxford University. Dr. Busuttil who has been appointed lecturer in International Law is at present lecturing on Constitutional Law in the absence of Dr. J. Cremona B.A., LL.D., B.A. (Lond.), D.Litt. (Rome), who has not yet arrived in Malta.

* * * *

Our congratulations likewise go to Dr. M. Caruana Curran B.A., LL.D., for his recent appointment to the chair of the Special Course of Laws as undertaken by our Legal Procurator and to Dr. H.W. Harding B.A., LL.D., another member of the Law Society, for his recent appointment as lecturer in History of Legislation.

* * * *

The Society thanks Dr. Albert Ganado B.A., LL.D., for favouring it with a copy of his History of Legislation — Bibliographical Index by Subject. Dr. Ganado's fourth instalment in "The Historical Development of the Criminal Code" will appear in our next issue.

* * * *

The Society likewise thanks Dr. M. Caruana Curran for furnishing it with a copy of his treatise "The Legal Procurator: A Study of the Historical Background, Status and Functions of the Profession", and for giving us permission for publication.

* * * *

As we go to press we hear with pleasure of the recent award of a Ph.D. degree to Dr. J.J. Cremona for his brilliant thesis in Criminal Law. Our hearty congratulations.