

More Unrecorded Forwarding Agents

By Giovanni Bonello, LL.D.

Letter from John Lowe in Vienna dated September 27, 1813, to Messrs Grabaw & Stressaw in Malta. It was forwarded by a hitherto unrecorded Forwarding Agent, E. Barker & Co, who must have operated somewhere in Italy, as the inscription is in Italian and reads a 1/2 E. Barker & Co che VBLM, ie through E. Barker & Co who kisses your hands

Letter from Fratelli Xerry in Malta dated March 25, 1843 to Giuseppe Ellul German in Trieste. The Xerry brothers addressed the letter to Matteo Gauci, Livorno per incamminarla al Sig. Giuseppe Ellul German. It passed through the Malta Post Office, reached Leghorn on March 30, 1843, where Matteo Gauci the Forwarding Agent took charge of it, cancelled his own name and address, and wrote A mezzo del Sig.re Matteo Gauci che distintamente vi saluta. It was received in Trieste on April 1, 1843. Another instance in which the sender wrote both the Addressee's and the Forwarding Agent's name and address
