EDUCATION ACT
(CAP. 327)

STATUTE FOR ISLANDS AND SMALL STATES INSTITUTE

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon him by articles 74(5) and 75(6) of the Education Act (CAP. 327), the Chancellor of the University of Malta has promulgated the following Statute made by the Council of the University of Malta in virtue of the powers conferred upon it by articles 72(h), 75(2) and 77(c) of the said Act:

Citation

This statute may be cited as the Statute for Islands and Small States Institute.

STATUTE FOR ISLANDS AND SMALL STATES INSTITUTE

1. The Islands and Small States Institute is hereby established as an institution within the University of Malta.

2. The aims of the Institute shall be:

(a) to promote a multidisciplinary and integrated approach to issues pertaining to islands and small states;

(b) to promote research and training on global, regional and local matters of interest to islands and small states and to publish the findings from such research;

(c) to train target groups on administrative, economic, sociological, geographical, ecological and other issues of interest to islands and small states;

(d) to gather and disseminate information and documentation on islands and small states;

(e) to implement projects and consultancy assignments, falling within areas of concern to the Institute;

(f) to run diploma and degree courses in collaboration with the University of Malta and other institutions.

(g) to hold international conferences, seminars and similar meetings on topics in the area of interest of the Institute,

3. The Institute shall be governed by a Board consisting of the following:

- (i) Chairman: the Rector of the University or his delegate;
- (ii) Vice-Chairman: the Director of the Institute;
- (iii) a person appointed by the Council of the University;
- (iv) a person appointed by Senate of the University;
- (v) up to two representatives of the academic staff lecturing at the Institute;
- (vi) up to two representatives of the students registered with the Institute; and
- (vii) up to four scholars of repute to be recommended by the Board and approved by Senate.

The Registrar or his delegate shall act as Secretary to the Board.

4. All members of the Board, other than those appointed ex officio; the two representatives of the academic staff and the two representatives of the students shall be appointed for a period of one year, renewable for up to four years. A retiring member will be eligible for re-appointment.

5. The functions of the Board shall be:

(a) to govern the affairs of the Institute, subject to the provisions of this statute and of such regulations, policies or directions as may from time to time be approved by the Council and the Senate;

(b) to formulate the policy of the Institute, to supervise its activities and administration, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Board may:

- (i) approve business plans and annual estimates of revenue and expenditure of the Institute for consideration and approval by the Council;
- (ii) with the written concurrence of the Rector enter into agreements with third parties for funding of the Institute or of particular activities;
- (iii) publish an annual report;
- (iv) enrol the Institute in associations or institutions sharing similar aims and interests;
- (v) propose Regulations and Bye-Laws to the Senate;

(vi) request staff members of the Institute to produce reports on academic matters, including the curricula of courses of study, qualifications for admission to courses, examinations and certificates of attendance or qualification, as well as project proposals for external funding, and scientific publications;

(vii) recommend to the Council the creation or abolition of academic and non-academic posts in the Institute;

(viii) propose for approval to the Senate, Board of Studies and Examiners for degree and diploma courses.

6. The Institute shall have a Director and staff:

(a)) the Director of the Institute shall be appointed according to the procedure for the appointment of Directors of Institutes and Centres as approved by the Council of the University, for a duration of one year, with the possibility of renewal annually subject to established performance criteria, the needs of the Institute and the needs of the University, for a total period not exceeding four (4) years; and

(c) the staff of the Institute shall be appointed by the University according to usual practice.

7. The duties of the Vice-Chairman/Director shall include:
