EDUCATION ACT
(CAP. 327)

STATUTE FOR THE INSTITUTE FOR PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND SPORT

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon him by articles 74(5) and 75(6) of the Education Act, the Chancellor of the University of Malta has promulgated the following Statute made by the Council of the University of Malta in virtue of the powers conferred upon it by articles 72(h), 75(2) and 77(c) of the said Act:

Citation

This statute may be cited as the Statute for the Institute for Physical Education and Sport.

STATUTE FOR THE INSTITUTE FOR PHYSICAL EDUCATION AND SPORT

1. The Institute for Physical Education and Sport is hereby established as an institution within the University of Malta.

2. The aims of the Institute shall be:

(a) to provide Certificate, Diploma and Degree Courses in Physical Education and Sport (such as in Sport Science, Sport Medicine, Sport Management, Sport Journalism) and other related areas, subject to the Statutes and Regulations of the University;

(b) to certify courses in Physical Education and Sport provided by other institutions if the standards attained are acceptable to it;

(c) to conduct research of both mono-disciplinary and multi-disciplinary nature, with a focus on Physical Education and Sport and related topics;

(d) to organize conferences, seminars and other meetings to study topics of interest to Physical Education and Sport;

(e) to develop national and international links with sport institutions and universities abroad, especially those that specialize in studies related to Physical Education and Sport;

(f) to service the requirements of the Faculty of Education and other faculties and institutions of the University in Physical Education and Sport;

(g) to attract foreign students to study at the Institute under the Leonardo, Erasmus, Socrates and Youth Action Programme;

(h) to undertake any other activities in the fields of Physical Education and Sport in cooperation with governmental and non-governmental agencies; and

(i) to carry out all other acts ancillary or conducive to the foregoing aims.

3. The Institute shall be governed by a Board consisting of the following:

- (i) Chairman: Rector or his delegate;
- (ii) Vice-Chairman: Director of the Institute;
- (iii) a person appointed by the Council of the University;
- (iv) a person appointed by the Senate of the University;
- (v) two representatives of the academic staff lecturing at the Institute;
- (vi) two representatives of the students registered with the Institute;
- (vii) one member appointed by the Minister responsible for Sport; and
- (viii) one member appointed by the Malta Sports Council.

The Registrar or his delegate shall act as Secretary to the Board.

4. All members of the Board, other than those appointed ex officio; the two representatives of the academic staff and the two representatives of the students shall be appointed for a period of one year, renewable for up to four years. A retiring member will be eligible for re-appointment.

5. The function of the Board shall be:

(a) to govern the affairs of the Institute, subject to the provisions of these statutes and of such regulations, policies or directions as may from time to time be approved by the Council and the Senate.

(b) to decide the policy of the Institute, to supervise its activities and administration, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Board may:

- (i) approve business plans and annual estimates of revenue and expenditure of the Institute for consideration and approval by the Council;
- (ii) with the written concurrence of the Rector enter into agreements with third parties for funding of the Institute or of particular activities;
- (iii) publish an annual report;

(iv) enrol the Institute in associations or institutions sharing similar aims and interests;

(v) propose Regulations and Bye-Laws to the Senate;

(vi) require from staff members of the Institute the production of reports on academic matters, including the curricula of courses of study, qualifications for admission to courses, examinations and certificates of attendance or qualification;

(vii) recommend to the Council the creation or abolition of academic and non-academic posts in the Institute;

(viii) propose for approval to the Senate, Board of Studies and Examiners for degree and diploma courses.

6. The Institute shall have a Director and Staff:

(a) the Director of the Institute shall be appointed according to the procedure for the appointment of Directors of Institutes and Centres as approved by the Council of the University, for a duration of one year, with the possibility of renewal annually subject to established performance criteria, the needs of the Institute and the needs of the University, for a total period not exceeding four (4) years; and

(b) the staff of the Institute shall be appointed by the University according to the usual practice.

7. The duties of the Vice-Chairman/Director shall include:

(a) promoting the development and implementation of the Institute's curricula and research programmes;

(b) compiling and submitting to the Registrar of the University by not later than January of each academic year, an updated comprehensive prospectus of the content descriptions of all current and projected study-units offered by members of the Institute as per guidelines established by the Programme Validation Committee;

(c) ensuring that the study-units offered by the staff members of the Institute are delivered in accordance with the advertised programme of studies; the Director must ensure that lecturing staff under his remit deliver all lectures, seminars, tutorials and laboratory sessions assigned to them respectively, at the time and venue advertised in the official timetable, and that any deviations thereof are formally registered, and the students duly notified in good time;

(d) delivering and implementing the strategic plan of the Institute;

(e) administering the Institute in full consultation with the members; monitoring and approving requests for leave of absence of members of the Institute; the Director is expected to maintain records of all leave taken by members and to pass on these records to the Director of Human Resources Management and Development upon request;

(f) promoting students' academic and personal welfare, providing first-line support to students with any difficulties they may encounter during their studies related to the activities of the Institute;

(g) monitoring the running of tests and examinations in the Institute and ensuring that all assessment and examination results are submitted to the Registrar's office as follows:

- January session – by the end of March;
- May/June session – final year results by not later than two working days prior to the final year degree classification board but in any case not later than end of July, other results as early as possible but not later than the end of July;
