Dictionaries:

Please note that as per the University Assessment Regulations, 2009:

‘Visiting students who are not registered on a Course leading to an award of this University may request and be granted permission to use a bi-lingual, English/native language dictionary during an Examination; English only dictionaries shall not be allowed’ (Regulation 39 (a) (i)).

Information about the dictionary request will be sent by email by the International Office Coordinators after the Add/Drop period.

Approval of such requests is at the discretion of the concerned academic entity.

Students are not allowed to write notes, formulas, etc in or on their dictionaries as they will be in breach of the University Assessment Regulations. If you are using a copy from the Library, or borrowed a dictionary from someone else, you will need to check that no such notes exist.

Absenteeism during Undergraduate examinations:

In terms of the General Regulations for University Undergraduate Awards, 2019, students are not required to provide evidence of absence from a written supervised examination.

When a student is absent from a written supervised examination, the Study-Unit shall be marked as incomplete, no final mark is awarded and he/she shall be allowed to sit for the examination at the next available opportunity under the same conditions, as he/she was entitled for in the missed session. This will be considered as a first sit and the result that may be obtained may be from grade A+ to D or Fail. On the other hand, the result that may be obtained after a Fail exam is grade D (45%) or Fail.

Absenteeism during Postgraduate examinations:

It is the duty of students to sit for their examinations when scheduled and they may only absent themselves from an examination for a valid reason.

In terms of the University Assessment Regulations, 2009, a student who is absent for a postgraduate examination needs to submit the reason for absence so that Senate determines whether there was valid reason for the absence.

Notification of absence should be made to the Faculty Office of the study-unit concerned by phone by not later than one hour after the commencement of an exam.

A written letter giving the reason for absence together with any documents in support of the claim, must be presented to the International Office within 24 hours of the Examination.

In case of illness, the student should present a medical report (this report is attached to these guidelines), as proof of illness, which shall be signed on each page by a medical practitioner. This report must be presented to the International Office not later than 24 hours after the commencement of the first examination listed in the report. It is advisable to leave a copy with the Faculty. For certain medical conditions, a certificate from a specialist (that is, not a General Practitioner) in these conditions will be required.

Reports which do not state the reason for absence are not acceptable (i.e. it is not enough for the reports to state that the student was sick or unwell on a certain date).

Students who attend for an examination but feel ill after the examination paper has been distributed and decide to discontinue their examination will not be considered as having been absent for a valid reason. Should you feel unwell on the day of the examination, it is advisable not to attend for the examination and to provide a medical certificate as explained above. If you attend and leave the examination hall due to sickness, you will be allowed to re-sit the examination in the September session, if eligible.

Medical report instructions:

An original Medical Report is to be given by hand to the Coordinators (International Office, Room 107, Administration Building). This report must be presented not later than 24 hours after the commencement of the first examination listed in the report. It is advisable to leave a copy with the Faculty.

The International Office will in turn forward original Medical Report to the Registrar's Office for consideration by Senate. A copy will also be forwarded to the respective Faculty. Students are advised to keep a copy of all documents submitted.

Students will be notified by the Registrar's Office whether or not Senate would have considered their absence from the examination/s to be a valid reason and therefore, whether or not they will be allowed to sit for the missed examination/s as a first sit (i.e. where any mark up to 100 may be obtained) during the September Supplementary Examinations Session.

Absence from non-written assessments / non-submission of home assignments

For non-written assessments, such as oral, practical or clinical, when students are examined individually at different times and dates, and for submission of home assignments, in case of absenteeism or non-submission, a student should submit a valid reason to the examiner/s.

If the reason submitted is considered valid by the examiners, the student is to either be examined or submit the work on another date during the same assessment session, if feasible, or be allowed to take the assessment at the next assessment session. When no reason is submitted or when the examiners consider the reason for absence as not valid or if the evidence provided is not considered sufficient, the student shall be deemed to have failed the missed assessment and shall receive a mark of 0, grade F.

Revision of papers:

Should students wish to apply for a revision of paper, their request must be submitted within one week from the date of publication of the result of the Study-Unit in question.

The date of publication of the result is shown on the results screen on eSIMS. The International Office should be informed about this.

For further information please refer to the following link: www.um.edu.mt/registrar/students

Supplementary assessments:

Supplementary assessments may be taken during the September Assessment Session which will be held between 1 September and 12 September 2026.

Full year visiting students will be allowed to take resits for study-units amounting to not more than 20 ECTS credits. Visiting students who are here for one semester only will be allowed to take resits for study-units amounting to not more than 12 ECTS credits.

The maximum grade that can be obtained in a resit exam is D (45%).

Examinations to be held abroad:

- Students are to check their results on eSIMS or through the app My UM. Those students who are eligible to sit for an incomplete or a failed study-unit and who wish to take their assessment at their home university or at the University of Malta, are to inform the respective Faculty Manager and their international office Coordinator at the University of Malta by filling in the following online form <https://www.um.edu.mt/registrar/exchangestudents/inboundform> by not later than the 7 August, 2026.
- It is the student's responsibility to inform the Faculty/Department concerned and the International Office of any re-sit requests by the deadline given.
- No arrangements will be normally made by the University of Malta for requests received after the above-mentioned deadline.
- Visiting students who submit their request by the above-mentioned deadline will receive a notification through their University of Malta IT account, indicating procedures to be followed when being examined by an alternative method of assessment, or sitting for examinations at their home University. Failure to follow these procedures may result in the University of Malta not being able to make the necessary arrangements to take examination/s abroad.

Resubmissions in the form of assignments:

In cases where a student has to resit a study-unit assessed by means of an assignment, she/he is to contact the host Faculty and the International Office, by not later than the 7 August 2026. The student will need to indicate that the method of assessment of the resit is by assignment.

Official transcripts:

Official transcripts are issued only after all the results have been published. This process may take up to 5 weeks after the end of the examination period. However, students may view their results online through their eSIMS account at any time. Transcripts will not be issued if the student still has incomplete study-units (results not yet published) and unless all library books are returned and any outstanding payments are settled. All library books are to be returned to the library prior to your departure. Transcripts will be sent directly to the student by email.

Language of instruction and assessment:

English is the language of instruction and assessment at the University of Malta. Should a lecturer speak in Maltese, attract his/her attention and ask the lecturer to speak in English.
