Matriculation Certificate Level Examinations: General Statistics of the Second (Resit) Session

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the First examination session that usually takes place between March and June was postponed to between September and October. The Second session was postponed to December and limited to candidates re-sitting examinations they had sat for in the First session. Certain parts of some subject examinations were cancelled to further mitigate the effects of the pandemic. This document shows the attainment of candidates following the Second (Resit) session of examinations held in December. The results in Advanced Matriculation examinations are shown in the following page, trailed by those at Intermediate Matriculation Level. Subjects with no registrations are not shown.
