

CONFERENCE

Latinitas in Perpetuum: The Value of Latin Inscriptions to History, Culture and Tourism

- 8:45-9:15 Registration
- Opening Note
- 9:15-9:35 Speeches by Dr Carmel Serracino, Prof. Ing. Simon G Fabri, Prof. Frank Bezzina, Skye Vassallo
- 9:35-10:05 What is digital epigraphy? And will it make things better? - Keynote Speech by Prof. Jonathan Prag
- 10:05-10:20 Keynote Q&A
- 10:20-10:40 Coffee break
- Panel 1: Inscriptions, Identities and the People of the Past
- 10:40-11:10 The Greek and Latin Inscriptions of the Maltese Islands: An Epigraphic Heritage to Be Enhanced - Dr Elena Pirino
- 11:10-11:40 The Historical and Social Importance of the Inscriptions in the Church of Santa Marija, Birkirkara - Sandro Sciberras
- 11:40-12:10 The Epitaphs found at the Cathedral Church, Mdina, Malta - Joanna Zammit Falzon
- 12:10-12:40 The History Behind Latin Inscriptions - Vincent Zammit
- 12:40-14:00 Lunch break
- Panel 2: What Inscriptions Reveal at a Closer Look
- 14:00-14:30 Faith in Stone: Epigraphy, Patronage, and the Jesuit Memoria Instituti in Early Modern Malta - Rev. Dr Nicholas J. Doublet
- 14:30-15:00 Parallel Inscription or Mistranslation? The Case of Wied Ghammieq Cemetery - Dr Jurgen R. Gatt
- 15:00-15:20 Coffee break
- Panel 3: Inscriptions as Icons of Heritage and their Value to Tourism
- 15:20-15:50 Guided by Stone: Integrating Notabile's Latin Inscriptions in a Walking Tour of the Silent City - Claire Bugeja, Samuel Azzopardi
- 15:50-16:20 Gamification and Education: The Bridge between Industry and Academia - Marc Belair
- 16:20-16:30 Closing remarks