

Senior European and Global History Workshops Timetable 2025-2026 Semester 2
B.A. & B.A. Hons. Year III European and Global History Students

Time: 10.00a.m. – 12:00p.m.

All sessions are being held physically on campus. Attendance is obligatory.

Session 1: (BOTH GROUPS)

Date: Thursday, 5 March 2026

Lecturers: Professor Dominic Fenech, Dr Simone Azzopardi

Is Mediterranean history of the last half-millennium a mere extension of European history?

Venue: CHBO 213 (Campus Hub Block O)

Session 2: (BOTH GROUPS)

Date: Thursday, 12 March 2026

Lecturers: Professor John Chircop, Mr Charles Dalli

What is it that characterizes the passage of history from late medieval to so-called 'modern times'?

Venue: CHBO 213 (Campus Hub Block O)

Session 3: (EGH ONLY)

Date: Thursday, 26 March 2026

Lecturers: Dr Joan Abela, Professor Emanuel Buttigieg

'Many of the forces shaping American history in the early modern and modern eras, including international migration, slavery, democracy and capitalism, were worldwide processes and must therefore be considered in a global context'. Discuss.

Venue: GW 207 (Gateway Building)

Session 4: (EGH ONLY)

Date: Thursday, 23 April 2026

Lecturers: Professor Emanuel Buttigieg, Dr Simone Azzopardi

To what extent can the term 'the first globalisation' be applied to the period c.1492 to c.1870?

Venue: OH212 (Old Humanities Building, Faculty of Arts Board Room)

Session 5: (BOTH GROUPS)

Date: Thursday, 30 April 2026

Lecturers: Professor Simon Mercieca, Dr Joan Abela

'Europe's history is at once an experience of regional unity and of divisiveness'. Discuss.

Venue: CHBO 213 (Campus Hub Block O)

VERY IMPORTANT: During each session, students are required to individually prepare and present an abstract of a model answer to the question (200 words).