

Senior History Workshops Timetable 2025-2026 Semester 2

B.A. & B.A. Hons. Year III History Students

Time: 10:00a.m.-12.00p.m.

All sessions are being held physically on campus. Attendance is obligatory.

Session 1: (BOTH GROUPS)

Date: Thursday, 5 March 2026

Lecturers: Professor Dominic Fenech, Dr Simone Azzopardi

Is Mediterranean history of the last half-millennium a mere extension of European history?

Venue: CHBO 213 (Campus Hub Block O)

Session 2: (BOTH GROUPS)

Date: Thursday, 12 March 2026

Lecturers: Professor John Chircop, Mr Charles Dalli

What is it that characterizes the passage of history from late medieval to so-called 'modern times'?

Venue: CHBO 213 (Campus Hub Block O)

Session 3: (HISTORY ONLY)

Date: Thursday, 26 March 2026

Lecturers: Professor Dominic Fenech, Mr Charles Dalli

Attempt a historical explanation for the fact that Malta – apart from Cyprus, but even there the majority would have preferred to join another country – is the only other Mediterranean island which has today a sovereign status.

Venue: OH212 (Old Humanities Building, Faculty of Arts Board Room)

Session 4: (HISTORY ONLY)

Date: Thursday, 16 April 2026

Lecturers: Dr Simone Azzopardi, Dr Joan Abela

What shapes did 'colonialism' take in Malta's history?

Venue: OH212 (Old Humanities Building, Faculty of Arts Board Room)

Session 5: (BOTH GROUPS)

Date: Thursday, 30 April 2026

Lecturers: Professor Simon Mercieca, Dr Joan Abela

'Europe's history is at once an experience of regional unity and of divisiveness'. Discuss.

Venue: CHBO 213 (Campus Hub Block O)

IMPORTANT: During each session, students are required to individually prepare and present an abstract of a model answer to the question (200 words).