

Public Memory Research Centre: Main Research Projects

- "Our [female] affairs": sexuality, contraception and childbirth experiences.
- Local healers and herbal medicine.
- Hospitalization of the Mentally Ill.
- Ill health, disease, medicine and cure.
- Surviving the War: Health, Shelters and the Victory Kitchens.
- Mutual help and social assistance among the labouring poor.
- Pawning, usury and gambling.
- Home affairs: nutrition, caring and child rearing.
- Experiencing daughterhood, dowry and marriage.
- Working class intellectuals.
- Living on fishing: collective recollections from the fishing communities.
- "My Ass Over here My Mind Over there": emigrants' recollections.
- Childhood, play and school.
- Victims of political violence and religious repression: the 1930s, 1960s and the 1980s.
- Working Women: from Cotton spinners to Factory Girls.
- Everybody Saturday Night: Music, Dance and Politics – the 1950-1970.
- Subcultures: the Ghannejja and the teddy boys to the local Punks.
- Popular theatre, music, literature and art (Popular Culture).
- Dockyard workers: experiences of work and daily life.
- Oral traditions: story-telling and all the verbal arts.
- The Jews, the Greeks, the Indians and other communities.
- Life in the religious orders and the in the MUSEUM.