

Using the 'Programmes of Study' feature on My timetable

1.0 Introduction

The Programmes of Study feature available on the My timetable platform allows you to view the complete timetables for each year of the Mechanical and Electrical Engineering streams, as well as the Certificate in Engineering Sciences programme.

1.1 How to Access the Feature

1. Visit the My timetable platform through one of the following options:
 - a. Via eSIMS, by clicking on the My timetable link
 - b. Via My UM app by tapping on the My timetable tile
 - c. Via <https://timetables.um.edu.mt/>
2. Once logged in, open the 'SEARCH' section to open the search tab.

5. Once the programme code is selected, the timetable will be displayed as per Figure 6.

The screenshot shows the L-Università ta' Malta timetable interface. On the left is a sidebar with navigation options: 'Find timetable', 'Timetables', 'Profile', 'Help • Contact us', and 'Europe/Berlin (+02:00)'. The main area is titled 'SEARCH' and shows 'Make Selections' with 'Selected (2)'. Under 'PERSONAL', 'My Timetable' is checked. Under 'OTHER', 'Programmes of study' and 'Filter by Department' are shown. A list of selected programmes includes 'UBENGH10 - MECSH - 2 - O' (checked) and 'UBENGH10 - MECSH - 2 - O' (unchecked). The timetable grid shows days from Monday 22 to Friday 26. Courses are listed in specific time slots: MEC2102 (08:00-09:00), ENR2101 (11:00-12:00), IMFE2004 (13:00-14:00), IME2102 (12:00-13:00), MEC2340 (14:00-15:00), and MME2203 (16:00-17:00). Each course entry includes the course code, lecturer name, and location (ELT or SLT).
